Relief Camps Are To End In 1936 States Ottawa

Hon. N. M. Rogers, Minister of Labor, Says King Government Expects System to Be Closed Down as Men Return to Regular Employment; Meanwhile Committee Arranges Transfer to Labor Department

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—The Dominion government hopes to close all relief camps during the coming year, Hon. Norman McLeod, Minister of Labor, announced today.

Mr. Rogers also announced appointment of a committee of three "to make personal investigations and reports on certain problems raised by the pending transfer" of these relief camps from the Department of National Defence to the Labor Department.

The committee will consist of R. A. Rigg, chief of the Dominion employment service, Humphrey Mitchell, former labor member for Hamilton east in the federal house, and Dr. E. W. Bradwin, president of the Frontier College. Dr. Bradwin lives in Toronto and the minister referred to his peculiar qualifications for the work to be done because of his connection with an organization which conducts educational work in frontier labor camps.

WILL VISIT CAMPS
The committee will start work immediately and intends visiting as many as possible of the 100-odd camps in Canada. The majority of these camps are located in British Columbia and Alberta. Approximately 20,000 men are in them at present.

In the past they have been run by the Department of National Defence, but steps for their transfer to the Labor Department were taken soon after the present government assumed office. The entire cost of the camps has been assumed by the Dominion.

BACK TO WORK
In making his announcement, Mr. Rogers emphasized the object was to get camp workers back into regular employment. He felt that with improved conditions, the field for them would open gradually. It would be the object of the government to see they were engaged in work which would be of genuine use while they were in the camps.

FORESEE WARSHIPS OF 60,000 TONS

Canadian Press via Havas
London, Nov. 28.—The Manchester Guardian said today if the forthcoming London naval conference does not result in tonnage limitation by categories "it is almost certain that battleships of 60,000 tons will be built between 1937 and 1938."

THREE HURT IN PRISON CLASH

Public Learns There Was Disorder in Jail Near Montreal Last Week

Canadian Press
St. Vincent de Paul, Que., Nov. 28.—Three men at least were injured in what authorities described as a minor uprising of convicts in the shoemakers' shop of St. Vincent Paul Penitentiary.

Disclosure of the disturbance was made today by Lieut.-Colonel P. A. Plume, warden of the big institution, who declined to reveal details of the trouble, which occurred last week, other than to announce two convicts had been wounded and a guard named White, hurt. The guard was attacked by a prisoner, but it was not revealed if there had been any shooting or how the convicts had been wounded.

FROM OTTAWA
All inquiries were met with the same reply: That all information would have to be obtained from the superintendent of penitentiaries at Ottawa.

VERNON TO HAVE ICE RINK VOTE

Vernon, B.C., Nov. 28.—Taxpayers of Vernon will have an opportunity in the middle of December to record whether or not they are in favor of the city backing, through a public subscription, the building of an artificial ice rink, the cost of which is estimated at about $25,000.

POSSES HUNT FLEEING GIRL

Mildred Hook, divorcee, Evades Police in Idaho As Ex-husband Held in Jail; Her Father, Joseph Hook, Mystery Story Author, Issues Appeal

Associated Press
Twin Falls, Idaho, Nov. 28.—Volunteer possemen combed the farm country south of here today for Mildred Hook, twenty-two-old Tacoma divorcee, sought as a material witness in her ex-husband's slaying of a state traffic officer.

Twin Falls county officials, however, expressed belief Miss Hook was hitch hiking back to Washington, and gave up their search for her.

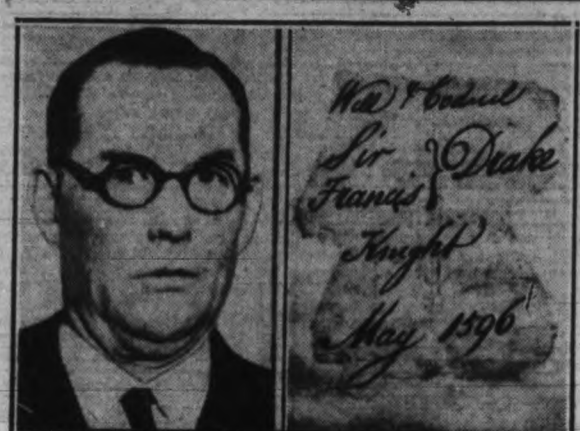

Douglas Van Vlack, Miss Hook's former husband, spent a bleak Thanksgiving Day in the county jail, awaiting trial, probably next month, on charges that he killed Officer Fontaine Cooper and seriously wounded Deputy Sheriff Henry Oliver.

RECORD ATTEMPT BY GREAT PLANE

Canadian Press via Havas
Biscarosse, France, Nov. 28.—The huge seaplane, Lieut. de Valsecque's Paris, France's bid for supremacy in transatlantic commercial air service, may attempt to set a new world long distance record when it takes off next week en route to South America. It was reported here today.

Figures at Drake Fraud Trial at Chicago

With British authorities co-operating with the prosecution, Oscar Hartzell, upper left, accused as the arch-promoter in the notorious Sir Francis Drake estate swindle, again is on trial in the Chicago federal court. Hartzell now is serving a ten-year sentence at Leavenworth, Kansas, in the swindle. Upper right is a certified facsimile of the signature on the will of the famed English adventurer, introduced as evidence in the trial of the forty-two defendants. Pictured below at the trial are Walter Johnson, left, U.S. postal inspector; Charles Challen, center, British barrister; and Arthur Bishop, right, of Scotland Yard. Challen and Bishop were called this week as government witnesses.

TREKKERS' CLASH WITH BENNETT IS TOLD AT INQUIRY

Regina Commission Investigating July 1 Riot Hears A. Evans Say Their Premier Was "Very Arrogant"

Canadian Press
Regina, Nov. 28.—A discordant and fruitless interview between a delegation of on-to-Ottawa trekkers and Prime Minister R. B. Bennett at Ottawa June 23 last, in which Mr. Bennett called Arthur Evans, the trek leader, a "thief" and Evans replied by calling Mr. Bennett a "liar," was described by Evans himself today as he launched into his third day of testifying at the Dominion Day riot inquiry.

"Mr. Bennett got very angry" as the delegation challenged his knowledge of conditions in the British Columbia relief camps, Evans related. In telling of the interview he described Mr. Bennett as "very arrogant and very braggart."

AIR DRILL HELD AT NANKING

Associated Press
Nanking, Nov. 28.—China's capital experienced the thrills of an enemy raid this evening, without its damaging effects.

The city was plunged in darkness for three hours while authorities staged their first air defence maneuvers designed to prepare the populace for "any eventualities."

FOR CHRISTMAS
First and foremost, the Labor leader stated, the unemployed could be assured of a happy Christmas. Relief, salary, wage and pension cuts made by the National Government since the financial crisis of September, 1931, would be restored at the earliest possible moment.

LABOR WOULD NOT IMMEDIATELY EMBARK ON ANY FINANCIAL EXPERIMENTS, Mr. Savage continued. As soon as possible, however, the government would begin a gradual reduction of the exchange difference between the value of the British pound and the New Zealand pound. It would be gradual, he said, because a rapid reduction would ruin business and industry.

Orient Events Watched As Tokio Is Requested To Explain Army Operations

LAVAL WINS ON TEST VOTE

French Cabinet Upheld on First Challenge as Session Starts

Canadian Press from Havas
Paris, Nov. 28.—Premier Laval received an unexpectedly overwhelming vote of confidence late today from the Chamber of deputies, which endorsed his policies by a vote of 345 to 223.

The vote came exactly one hour after the Chamber had reconvened following a five months' recess. Premier Laval demanded priority for the debate on financial policy and staked the life of his cabinet on the outcome.

Opposed only by Leon Blum, speaking for the Socialists, M. Laval was accorded an overwhelming majority when the vote was counted. He had expected no more than a majority of 30 to 40 votes up to the opening of the debate.

POLICE ON GUARD
Police cordons about the Bourbon Palace kept a crowding crowd moving. There was no sign of any hostile demonstration.

BIG PLANE ON MANILA FLIGHT

Associated Press
Guam, Nov. 28.—The China Clipper rose from the waters of Apra Bay at dawn today and took off for Manila, 1,700 miles distant.

Only about twelve hours' flying lay ahead of Capt. Edwin C. Musick and his crew to complete the first commercial flight across the 6,000 miles of ocean separating California and the Philippines.

NEW ZEALAND SHAPES PLANS

Canadian Press Cable via Reuters
Wellington, N.Z., Nov. 28.—Better living and working conditions for the working class will be the immediate objective of New Zealand's first Labor government, Michael J. Savage, Prime Minister-elect, declared today.

An early session of Parliament will probably be called as soon as he takes office, said Mr. Savage, who led the Labor Party to an overwhelming victory in yesterday's general election.

TELLER HELD ON THEFT CHARGE

Canadian Press
Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 28.—Adam Franklin Hunter, forty-nine-year-old teller of the Landed Bank and Loan Company here, was arrested today and charged with theft of bonds of $14,000 per value during the last three years. The information was laid by company officials, who revealed Hunter had been employed by the firm since he was sixteen.

British, With Large Investments in Railways in North China, Wish to Know How Far Japanese Intend to Go in Present Moves; Tientsin Like Armed Camp as Japanese Rush Airbase Work

London, Nov. 28.—Great Britain today officially asked Japan to indicate its exact intentions with regard to north China.

A note embodying this direct question was handed to the Japanese Foreign Office in Tokio by the British charge d'affaires.

JAPAN MINISTER OPPOSES ARMY

Canadian Press via Havas
Tokyo, Nov. 28.—Increased Japanese armaments will be a provocation to the United States and Russia, Finance Minister Korekida Takahashi warned today.

Taking a bold stand against the War Ministry, Takahashi announced he would oppose the full appropriations demanded by the military chiefs.

Japanese seizure of north China railways in which there are heavy British interests or the establishment of Japanese control over those railways would create a situation which Great Britain could not ignore, it was indicated.

Canadian Press via Havas
Peking, Nov. 28.—Japanese troops were withdrawn today from the railway stations at Fengtai, east of Peking, and Changyimen which they occupied yesterday. Two soldiers were left behind at each station to check on all rail traffic.

A Japanese military spokesman said yesterday's military measures were "manoeuvres." Whether troop movements begun would continue as (Turn to Page 2, Col. 4.)

Plunged Into Flames To Rescue His Dog

Jack Briggs, Who With Allen Griffin Was Seriously Injured When Gasboat Tye Caught Fire Off Sidney Island, Hero of Gulf Wreck; Rescuers Cut Skin Off Injured Man With Scissors

Dying into a blazing cabin to save his dog, which he heard howling beneath the flaming hatchway, Jack Briggs, who with Allen Griffin, was seriously burned yesterday evening when the forty-five-foot gasboat Tye blew up and burned to the water's edge off Sidney Island, is held by Arthur Patterson, chief engineer of the steamer Grainer, which rescued the party, as the hero of the wreck.

The gasboat, carrying a hunting party of four Victorians, J. Briggs, his brother, A. Briggs, A. Griffin and A. Anderson, burst into flames in the gulf off Sidney Island when the engine backfired.

The four men were forced to take to the dingy and were heading in the direction of James Island when the freighter Grainer here in sight and picked them up, giving the injured men first aid and bringing them to Victoria for hospital treatment.

Call of Polar Fliers Picked Up

Ss. Monowai Near New Zealand Receives Message Believed to Be From Ellsworth and Hollick-Kenyon, Missing in Antarctica

Canadian Press from Havas
Wellington, N.Z., Nov. 28.—The Ss. Monowai today reported receiving a message apparently from the missing airplane Polar Star in which Lincoln Ellsworth took off last Saturday for a flight across the Antarctic continent from Dundee Island to the Bay of Whales. The message attempted to give the airplane's location, the ship reported.

On Wednesday the New Zealand cruiser Dunedin, stationed at Picton Sound, reported receiving messages apparently signed with the Ellsworth call letters. Investigation revealed, however, the messages had been sent (Turn to Page 18, Col. 6.)

MANSON IS TO BE JUDGE

Official Announcement of Choice For B.C. Supreme Court Comes From Ottawa

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—A. M. Manson, K.C., former Attorney-General of British Columbia, has been appointed a judge of the Supreme Court of British Columbia to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mr. Justice F. G. T. Lucas.

Announcement of the appointment was made at the conclusion of a cabinet meeting yesterday by Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice and Acting Prime Minister.

Alexander Malcolm Manson was born October 7, 1863, at St. Louis, Mo. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 8.)

Overtime Pay At Christmas Fixed

Store Clerks Working More Than Forty-eight Hours During Rush Week Must Be Paid Time and One-quarter Per Hour; Special Hours For Delivery Departments Set

Orders governing overtime pay for retail-store clerks and shop workers working extra hours to cope with the heavy volume of Christmas shopping were made by the B.C. Board of Industrial Relations today under the Minimum Wage Act.

In regulations covering both males and females in retail mercantile jobs, the board ordered that where an employee was required to work more than forty-eight hours in any one week he or she must be paid at the rate of time and one-quarter of regular wages for each hour of overtime.

Under the Hours of Work Act, the board related the daily eight-hour law to the extent that clerks may be worked up to eleven hours a day on December 21, 23 and 24, the three shopping days before the holiday.

This will permit employees to be worked a maximum of fifty-one hours in the week ending December 21 and the extra three hours would be paid for at the overtime rate.

In Christmas week itself, the two holidays of Christmas and Boxing Day will bring the total number of hours worked during the week to below the forty-eight-hour limit.

MAN FINED FOR DOPING HORSE

Canadian Press
Toronto, Nov. 28.—Kearney Nethers, stableman, employed by T. Clarence Kelley, Kentucky horseman, was fined $5 and $4 costs in police court today when he pleaded guilty to a charge laid by the Toronto Humane Society in connection with the "doping" of an animal at the Royal Winter Fair horse show.

APPROVE NEW AID TO TOURISTS

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Nov. 28.—The Canadian Association of Tourist and publicity Bureaus today expressed approval of the government's proposal to permit Canadian travelers to the United States to return with $100 worth of goods duty free.

The association, holding its sixth annual convention, decided to restrict association membership to government, municipal or other properly organized tourist bureaus spending money to bring visitors to their areas.

BEATTY IS FOR TRADE TREATY

C.P.R. Head Supports Canada-U.S. Pact; Says King's Majority Means Progress

Canadian Press
Thorold, Ont., Nov. 28.—Commendation of the Canadian-United States reciprocal trade treaty was voiced here yesterday evening by Sir Edward Beatty, K.C., who returned to his home town to address the annual dinner of the Thorold Board of Trade.

"The new trade agreement is a step in the right direction," declared the president of the Canadian Pacific Railways in a postscript to his address.

"Some of the public was disappointed concerning the fact without really knowing how it affected the whole of Canada. I would like to see a tariff balance sheet to show how a country benefits and suffers, particularly in regard to employment as a result of the agreement."

"We must endorse the policy of greater trade—we cannot live without it."

HAILE SELASSIE GOES TO FRONT

Canadian Press from Havas Addis Ababa, Nov. 28.—Unsuspected successes on both fronts have inspired Ethiopian military leaders to plan a concerted drive to oust the Italians from northern and southern Ethiopian provinces by Christmas, if possible. It was learned to-day on good authority.

At least 100,000 warriors, half on each front, would be hurled forward in the first attacks, with other thousands ready to take their places or follow up victories.

Ogaden province, in the south, is already declared much relieved by the recent Ethiopian advance.

Associated Press Rome, Nov. 28.—Rains hampered Italian operations in northern Ethiopia to-day.

While the Italians insisted their troops would press on in mountain marches, hunting down enemy bands regardless of the weather, military sources foresaw a rainy period which might hinder rapid advances expected after the arrival of Marshal Pietro Badoglio.

On the Tigris front, the Italians claimed they held the strategic centre of Gorrhaet firmly.

Oil Discussion Paris, Nov. 28.—Diplomatic sources said to-day that Premier Mussolini, relating Italy is ready to "oppose an oil embargo by every means."

He threatened to reinforce Italy's troops in Libya again unless Great Britain withdraws ships from the Mediterranean.

Senator Laval of France, who considers the proposed oil embargo a danger and asks the quick resumption of peace efforts in view of the new tension in Europe, talked to Ambassador Vittorio Cerruti this morning.

The Italians were said in authoritative quarters to be offended at Great Britain's failure to withdraw some units of the Home Fleet from the Mediterranean after the British elections.

It was added the Italians were threatening to send back the division of troops ordered out of Libya in anticipation of the British curtailing their naval force.

The British, for their part, were reported to have delayed withdrawal of the ships because of the recent truce in Egypt which they blamed on Italian propaganda.

SHORTAGES AT ASMARAH Khartoum, Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, Nov. 28 (Canadian Press from Havas).—Travelers who arrived here yesterday reported an acute shortage of water, gasoline and electric power at Asmara, Italy's debarkation port for its expeditionary forces in East Africa.

The tremendous increase in the population of the African port had taxed the facilities of the port beyond all expectations, they said.

BORAH HEARD IN U.S. Washington, Nov. 28 (Associated Press).—Senator W. E. Borah, Idaho Republican, called on the United States to-day to abstain from joining in League of Nations sanctions against Italy.

Saying he did not believe such a move was a part of the administration's plan, Mr. Borah asserted in a statement.

The primary purpose of our government is to stay out of the European controversy, and to join the League sanctions would be to jump into European conflict.

City Hears Terms For Picture Deal

Approximately $3,500 to the city. For two years he was prepared to pay a rental of $1,400 a year. For the next three years he wished a lease at the nominal figure of $1 a year, provided he was still here for the next twenty years, a lease in five-year terms at $1 a year.

Alderman T. W. C. Hawkins introduced Mr. Barsky and George Schneiderman, cameraman and laboratory expert, to the committee. He spoke of the previous visit of Mr. Barsky and trips that had been made to the exhibition buildings at the Willows. Mr. Barsky had come back looking for a site, the alderman stated. Alderman Hawkins thought the worsted mills property would be suitable.

Mr. Barsky was not here to promote stock sales or get the city to guarantee bonds, the alderman stated. He did, however, want certain concessions.

Alderman J. D. Hunter asked for data on the worsted mills, regarding taxes, bonds and condition.

HISTORY OF VISIT While that was being secured, W. T. Strath, president of the Chamber of Commerce and active in attempting to secure a permanent moving picture business here, addressed the meeting. He informed the committee he was appearing as Mr. Barsky's solicitor and not as president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Strath outlined Mr. Barsky's terms regarding rental and leases. D. A. Macdonald, city comptroller-treasurer, reported to the committee the city had guaranteed the bonds of the worsted mill to the extent of $125,000. They were written at 5 per cent and would expire in 1953, he said.

The city would have had $17,760 in the sinking fund for the retirement of the bonds up to date, but only $4,600 had been paid in by the company, he added.

Mayor Leeming, chairman at the meeting, spoke of a meeting between aldermen and Mr. Barsky yesterday at which terms had been broached. It was understood yesterday that Mr. Barsky wished a $1,400 rental for two years, a lease at $1 a year for the next three and then the outright gift of the building.

$100,000 EQUIPMENT "Mr. Barsky in return would operate a studio and a film laboratory, bringing in $100,000 worth of equipment and employing twenty-five people at wages from $2.50 to $2.85 a day."

Possession of the site was requested immediately, the mayor stated, in order to produce completely two pictures by March. They would be marketed in London, he said.

Both Mr. Barsky and Mr. Schneiderman had impossible references, Mayor Leeming said.

If the council decided to submit to the voters the question of leasing the site to Mr. Barsky, the mayor stated, such a plebiscite would have to be advertised for at least ten days before the election.

Mr. Strath stated Mr. Barsky was prepared, under certain conditions, to put in a complete plant, including all phases of picture work right up to running of the film in a test theatre. Possibility of manufacturing the technical machinery was also being considered by the Hollywood man, he added.

CONTINGENT ON DUTY REMOVAL Mr. Strath emphasized the fact the entry of Mr. Barsky's $100,000 equipment would be contingent on the removal of the federal duty against it.

Once here, Mr. Strath said, the equipment would be available at a reasonable rental to any other producer.

Alderman Archie Willis asked what concessions the city had given the company now operating at the Willows.

"Nothing. We have nothing to do with them," the mayor replied.

Alderman Luney asked for time to consider the question, noting Victoria had two white elephants on its hands at Ogden Point already.

Alderman P. R. Brown remarked the proposed terms submitted by Mr. Barsky would be tantamount to a $56,655 bonus from the city to him.

The principals would benefit chiefly from the agreement and the employment it would furnish Victorians would not be a very big item. He suggested an alternative scheme regarding leases and rentals which would cover half the annual taxes on the premises.

Plunged In Flames To Rescue His Dog

Dr. E. L. McNeven attended the case.

J. Briggs and A. Griffin were reported at the Jubilee Hospital this morning to be progressing as nicely as could be expected and were not believed to be in danger of complications.

ENGINEER'S STORY "We watched the Ties about 5:30 p.m. in flames, the mate, Alex. Holm, picking out the burning craft with his glasses. As we watched the gasboat our attention was attracted by men shouting to us. We saw the little dory which was just afloat, with but a few inches of freeboard, owing to the combined weight of the four men."

"They told us the gas tube had plunged up and they were trying to get the tube clear when the engine backfired and the vessel was enveloped in flames."

"Briggs had the dog howling below and he plunged through the flames into the cabin and emerged with the dog."

"We made the injured men as easy as possible and then headed for Victoria, arriving about 7:30 o'clock at the shore docks, where we got in touch with the police who had been waiting for the men to hospital."

The gasboat was left burning in the gulf and will be a total loss.

FATHER'S APPEAL Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 28.—Joseph Hook, writer of mystery stories, turned to the public to-day in a frantic effort to solve real-life mystery in his own family.

The fifty-year-old ex-cowboy, ex-pro prospector, ex-owner of a cigar store, who has written more than 135 crime and mystery stories, issued through the press an urgent appeal to mothers and fathers of the Northwest to help him find his missing daughter, Mildred, twenty-two-year-old divorcee.

Hook said he believed Mildred was hiding by day and traveling by night somewhere in Idaho, under a false name. He said he was afraid of the police. Idaho officers talked of draining an irrigation ditch for her body and offered as an alternative the theory she was hitch-hiking back to Tacoma.

Mildred disappeared Monday in the climax of a story as bizarre as any book ever created. Back of her disappearance was the tale of a secret wedding, a turbulent marriage, an inter-locutory divorce followed by unexplained telephone calls between the principals, an alleged robbery and two alleged abductions.

Both abductions allegedly were made by Douglas Van Vlack, the girl's former husband. The first lasted only an afternoon about a month ago. The second began Saturday afternoon when Van Vlack allegedly forced the girl into his car at pistol point on a Tacoma street. Saturday night there was a Portland, Ore., telephone call from Mildred to relatives; Monday morning a telegram from Boise, saying, "I am all right, will be home as soon as possible." Van Vlack telegraphed his parents from Boise at the same time.

Monday afternoon two officers fell under a gunman's fire in southern Idaho, one killed instantly, Van Vlack was captured Tuesday and police said he admitted the shootings. Mildred's red hat was found in his car, but Mildred was missing, Van Vlack, jailed at Twin Falls, denied harming her. He said they had separated following the shootings.

No further information has been received about her, despite a dragnet spread by police officers, railroad employees and relatives.

FENGTAI PROTEST A correspondent for the Japanese news agency, Nanso, reported from Nanking it was authoritatively stated the Chinese government would protest to Japan against the seizure of Fengtai.

He said the embassy had announced the Japanese were withdrawn from Fengtai after the railway had agreed not to move empty cars to the south.

GARRISON ON MARCH Reports the Chinese garrison at Tangchow had rebelled and was marching northward aroused Japanese military apprehension that the hitherto bloodless autonomy movement might emerge into open hostilities.

Japanese advisers said 700 Chinese troops had revolted at Tangchow, fifty miles south of here, and were trying to join the campaign farther north for secession from the central government.

CLASH MAY COME The rebels were reported in danger of a clash with the army of Gen. Shang Chen, who resigned as governor of Hopei Province because of failure to check the autonomy movement, near Tientsin.

Chang Tui-tien, named in Japanese reports as the leader of the rebels, had previously been appointed to a high post in the autonomous state established by Yin Ju-kang, Chinese administrator of the demilitarized zone in eastern Hopei.

wood for development, noting the loss of time entailed.

He gave a glowing testimony to his associate, Mr. Schneiderman. As far as they were concerned, Mr. Barsky said, the question was: "Where is the cheapest place and where can we get the best bargain?"

After further discussion, Alderman Luney suggested Mr. Barsky be requested to post bond of $10,000, if he did not produce here for at least six months and left Victoria footing the bills for building improvements.

The whole issue was then referred to the committee composed of Alderman Alec Feden, chairman, and Aldermen R. A. C. Dewar, Archie Willis, Walter Luney, T. W. C. Hawkins and P. R. Brown.

Dominion's reserve bank into an institution completely controlled by the state, and if necessary the labor government would not hesitate to do so.

The natives of western Samoa, over which New Zealand exercises a League of Nations mandate, would be generally dealt with by Labor, declared Mr. Savage.

Except for a slight decline in the price of bank shares, the stock exchange reaction to the Labor victory was negligible. There was active dealing to-day in government bonds, the price of which remains unchanged.

By THOMAS T. CHAMPION Canadian Press Staff Writer London, Nov. 28.—New Zealand has again become the scene of social and political experiment from which the more Conservative British nations may have much to learn. The Manchester Guardian said in an editorial to-day, commenting on Labor's victory in yesterday's general election.

It is not fanciful to foresee, says The Guardian, that Canada, which has firm cultural ties with both the French and the British, should be an increasingly strong link between nations of the old world and nations of the new, like New Zealand.

"Certainly it will not be the fault of Canada's present Premier," the editorial continues, "if Canada fails to work for the peace of the world and to order freer trade both with her great neighbor and with the league of powers of which she is one."

EXAMPLE FOR EUROPE The Guardian describes the trade agreement recently concluded between Prime Minister King and the United States as a good beginning. "Europe will be safer and saner," it concludes, "when the spirit which dictated it gains some hearing on this side of the Atlantic."

and wages," according to Evans, Mr. Bennett said: "This is impossible."

Evans continued: "He barked at us, 'Where are we going to get the money?'"

COONSIDE BIAS R. D. Hogarth, K.C., counsel for the commission, protested that the witness was not fair to Mr. Bennett.

Judge A. E. Doak—"We will take into consideration the bias of the witness. Evans—I am not biased."

Judge Doak—"Your language shows possibly you are biased."

Mr. Justice Martin—"We want to know the facts, not the attitude of Mr. Bennett."

Evans's version of the Ottawa interview occupied most of this morning's session of the inquiry.

The story of the trek as told by Evans reached to July 1, the day of the riot in Regina which is under investigation, at noon adjournment to-day.

ON JUNE 22 The delegation of eight trekkers, Evans related, was escorted to Mr. Bennett's office on Saturday, June 22, by R.C.M.P. There were eight or nine cabinet ministers present, but Mr. Bennett was the whole government and did all the talking.

crowd in the rain outside behind the silent lines of police about the Bourbon Palace knew the critical moment had arrived.

The galleries of the Chamber were filled with diplomats, officials and journalists, admitted by card only.

Leon Blum, head of the Socialist Party, charged the government with evading the main issue.

"The first duty of the Chamber is to hold the debate for which the country is waiting," he declared.

The Premier received in trust five months ago the care of our republican liberties and institutions. Our duty is to know what he has done with it."

TELLS OF PLOTS To the applause of his Communist and Socialist fellow-deputies, M. Blum charged plots were afoot against the state, and declared the government's first concern should lie there.

M. Blum's intervention was greeted only from the extreme left. The vote began after he had sat down, and it was evident almost at once that M. Laval had secured his vote of confidence.

The board passed a special order dealing with the mail order, shipping and delivery branches of retail establishments. Employees in these shops, it was declared, could be worked up to ten hours a day any time between November 28 and December 31, providing that, except in the week ending December 31, immediately preceding Christmas, they must not work more than the statutory forty-eight hours a week.

During the big rush week before Christmas they may be worked more than forty-eight hours but must be paid at the overtime rate.

In announcing the orders the board officials said it was hoped the special overtime rate would also serve to encourage the employment of extra help during the rush season, thus instituting available jobs among as many as possible.

Warns Against Machine State

Canadian Press

Toronto, Nov. 28.—Whenever a mechanical state has been attempted it has always ended in disaster, Baron Tweedsmuir, new Governor-General of Canada, said yesterday in an address on democracy to a University of Toronto convocation at which an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on him.

Certain great countries in the old world had been prepared to surrender their souls to a dictator or an oligarchy if only they were promised security, he said. In such cases, all freedom of personality was lost and human beings became a disciplined collection of automata.

The Governor-General remarked politics had hitherto been his chief subject, but now, in the ordinary sense, were forbidden him. But today when the duties and rights of the state impinged so much on the private life of the citizen, politics, in the broadest sense, had become of far more universal interest than ever before.

TRIBUTE TO UNIVERSITY

The University of Toronto, he believed, had striven to live up to the conception James Bryce, former British ambassador at Washington, had of United States universities—popular and free. An institution might be popular without freedom and free without being popular. The combination meant the attainment of the true democratic ideal—equality of social status, a high level of human sympathy and complete freedom of thought.

"We are told, and told truly, that to-day democracy is at stake," he said. The democratic form of government was the most difficult of all because it set up so high a purpose. It offered a wonderful prospect and if it failed the disillusion was the keener.

CONVICT SENDS OUT CHEQUES

Joseph Russell Mails $90.60
From Ohio Prison to Five Families

Associated Press

Cleveland, Nov. 27.—Five Cleveland families received Thanksgiving greetings in the form of cheques to-day from Joseph Russell, who is serving a term of fifty-six years in the Ohio penitentiary.

The cheques, totalling $90.60, were sent to persons who were victims of Russell's depredations eight years ago when he was known to police as "Specs," the "Goggles Bandit," a very troublesome person.

Philip Segel, a butcher, received one for $20, the amount he turned over to Russell in 1927. Alex Pram, who once operated a small confectionery store, received $20. A. G. Stevenson received $10.60, the amount he lost in the robbery of a drug store in 1927. Two other $20 cheques were distributed, one to Mrs. Margeta Stagg, another to H. W. Chapman.

Russell went to prison in 1927 when he was nineteen. He had played the trombone and he soon became soloist in the prison orchestra.

He started writing, first being successful in selling articles to a nationally known music magazine. He began to earn money in that way and decided to repay his victims. He is having more trouble repaying them, however, than he had in robbing them.

Police officials of the Cleveland Association of Criminal Justice said there were about fifty victims. Russell finally obtained a list of them.

Stevens Party Names Organizer

Leader and Defeated Candidates Plan Dominion Reconstruction Conference

Canadian Press

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—The Reconstruction Party "will be carried on as a permanent reform movement," Hon. H. H. Stevens, its leader, states. A Dominion organizer has been appointed to supervise a country-wide organization. In the course of the next few months a Dominion conference will be held, says the leader. This will not take place, however, until organization has proceeded for a time "so that such conference may be democratic and representative."

Mr. Stevens yesterday announced appointment of James L. Acker, Toronto, as the new Dominion organizer. "Mr. Acker is a man of wide business experience in Canada and gave most valuable service during the last election campaign as organizer for the reconstruction movement," Mr. Stevens said.

In addition to meeting Ontario candidates and workers in Toronto, Mr. Stevens said he had also visited Montreal for a similar purpose and had been in correspondence with representatives of the movement in the maritime provinces and the west.

In the general election October 14 Mr. Stevens was the only Reconstruction Party candidate elected to the Commons.

BEER DISTRIBUTION PLAN FOR ALBERTA

Canadian Press

Edmonton, Nov. 28.—Distribution of beer in Alberta will be taken over by the provincial government itself on March 1, under plans now being drawn up, it has been learned. The provincially-operated system will replace Distributors Limited, the selling agency operated by Alberta brewers.

The government hopes to profit by an amount as high as $100,000 annually.

The order-in-council approving the change has not yet been passed, but the government is understood to have approved preliminary plans and it is expected the order will go through within a short time.

Under the government system all beer will be sold through the government vendee.

The government itself will make no deliveries such as the C.O.D. system which has been operated by Distributors Limited.

GREEK AMNESTY VIEWS DIFFER

Associated Press

Athens, Nov. 28.—King George II of Greece, restored only last Monday to his throne after a dozen years in exile, was deadlocked to-day with his cabinet on the question of amnesty for hundreds of participants in the abortive rebellion of last March.

The king favored a sweeping decree of amnesty for all the rebels, while a majority of the cabinet desired the exception of "leaders," including the exiled former Premier Eleutherios Venizelos, who was sentenced to death in Absentia, General Nicholas Plastiras, Rear-admiral Demetichas and others.

Faris, Nov. 28.—Former Premier Venizelos of Greece, asked what he would do if King George II should issue a political amnesty decree including him, said through his wife: "I am not going back. It would not be wise."

WHY ETHIOPIA?

THERE IS NO VALID GROUND FOR the contention that Italy's invasion of Ethiopia was dictated by her need of additional colonial territory as an outlet for her increasing population. For more than forty years she has possessed Eritrea and Italian Somaliland, former Abyssinian territory on the coast, covering 240,000 square miles, and of a population of 1,650,000 less than 6,000 are Italians. These two colonies, in fact, are more than twice as large as Italy itself. The number of Europeans in the whole of Ethiopia with its population of ten millions is even less than it is in Eritrea and Italian Somaliland.

If Italy annexed the entire 350,000 square miles of Ethiopia, giving her, all told, more than half a million square miles of East Africa, she could not use it as an outlet for her home population, and there never would be more than a handful, relatively, of Italians there. The locality is simply impossible for European settlement. The Italians who would go there probably would comprise mainly those who were sent out for penal purposes or because they opposed Fascism. This in many cases would be a restoration of the ancient inquisition, but in a worse form than the original model because victims of pestilence in Ethiopia take longer to perish than those who were martyred at the stake or pickled in brine.

Twenty-four years ago Italy annexed Tripoli, one of the northern African Mediterranean states formerly under the control of Turkey, and now known as Libya. That country, with its hinterland, has an area of 630,000 square miles, almost twice as large as the whole of Ethiopia, but in a total population of 760,000 there are only 30,000 Italians. Libya is a much more comfortable place in which to live than Ethiopia or Italian Somaliland, yet there is no evidence that it is being used in any considerable measure as an outlet for Italy's population.

Nor is it true that Italy's home population is acutely congested. It is much less per square mile than the population of the British Isles, Japan, Belgium or Holland. Indeed, it is no larger than that of Germany. It is true that Italy is poor in natural resources, but so are many other countries, and in any case Ethiopia could not adequately supply this requirement except in a very few particulars which certainly would not justify the cost of war.

The inescapable fact is that Italy wants Ethiopia for other reasons. In the first place she wants it on account of its strategic situation, in a military sense, as an important preliminary step in imperial consolidation. Her programme is to gain control of the country in order to organize a big colonial army of Ethiopians under Italian training and command, to become master of the source of the Nile, and with these agencies to dominate Egypt and East Africa generally. Mussolini obviously hopes to restore the ancient Roman hegemony in Africa, to revive the far-flung ancient empire of the Caesars with himself as the modern Augustus.

This is the veriest pipe-dream, but when did dictators not indulge in these crazy designs? In fact, it is impossible to be a dictator on a grand scale without doing so, because it is the only means by which dictators can retain their power. Triumphs in arms abroad and triumphant celebrations and largesse at home at the expense of the conquered—this is the ultimate objective of every ruler who rules by force. The Romanoffs had 8,000,000 square miles of territory, but they wanted Constantinople, Manchuria and India. Napoleon wanted the whole of Europe. In these ecstasies there is nothing so statesmanlike as colonization and economic reconstruction; they are made up of vanity, lust for power and fear of internal revolution. And all this is why Mussolini really wants Ethiopia.

ORANGES

AN OTTAWA NEWSPAPER IS APPREHENSIVE lest the new trade agreement between Canada and the United States will strike a serious blow at the expansion of the sale of empire oranges in this country. It is worrying itself, of course, quite unnecessarily.

The agreement with the United States in regard to that country's oranges is that they shall come into Canada free of duty during the first four months of each year, and that after that date they will be subject to a duty of seventy-five cents a box. Our Ottawa contemporary, however, does not appear to be aware that Australian oranges do not begin to arrive in this country until the latter part of May, while, as far as British Columbia is concerned, and perhaps most of Canada, no South African oranges are imported. After the four-month concession to the United States product terminates, therefore, there will be three, and possibly four, weeks of United States imports upon which the seventy-five-cent-a-box duty will have to be paid—meaning higher cost to the consumer.

Canada naturally wants to buy as much as possible from empire countries and she wants empire countries to reciprocate; but in the case of oranges it is no secret that the Australian product, in the matter of quality, by no means measures up to the quality of the Californian product. In fact, those who can speak with authority declare that the reason why so few Australian oranges have been coming into Canada since the Ottawa agreements went into effect is because those that have come have been unsatisfactory.

Canadian consumers have long been accustomed to the best grades of this fruit which comes from the south, and the arrangement under which they will be able to supply their needs during the first four months of the year should be satisfactory to them.

ENCOURAGING PROGRESS

IT TOOK THIS COUNTRY A CONSIDERABLE period to get its external trade back over the billion-dollar mark, but it is well past it now and should soon be half way to what it was in 1930. It has also taken us a long time to get the number of persons employed in the country back to the million mark. November 1 returns from 9,482 firms, however, show that the payroll mark stood at 1,012,103 on that date, compared with 997,300 on October 1—a gain of 14,803. According to the statement of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, moreover, the employment level at the beginning of this month was higher than at the beginning of any month since December 1, 1930, before Canada had begun to feel the full effects of the depression.

This is a satisfactory gain in recent times. It ought to be reasonable to expect that it will gradually continue from month to month. There are excellent prospects that, with new trading arrangements with the United States, New Zealand, and settlement of the exchange dispute with Japan, economic conditions this time next year will have so far improved as to permit the people of the country to contemplate the unemployment problem with very considerable less alarm than at present. The cure, of course, for that and related difficulties is largely more business, both external and internal. The new government at Ottawa is seeking this objective, and it already has made an excellent start.

'A. P. H.' NOW IN PARLIAMENT

ONE OF THE NEW FACES SEEN IN THE British House of Commons in the new Parliament is that of Mr. A. P. Herbert, one of Punch's best known humorous writers, who ought to be able to cheer up the House of Commons during some of its dry-as-dust debates.

Over the air recently Mr. Herbert gave the British public a sample of what it may expect of him. He did not propose to be left out of that fashionable coterie which appeals to the electorate on the Wilsonian "point" plan. He declared he had nine points and he proceeded to deal with one of them briefly: "No. 9—Agriculture. I know nothing about agriculture." There followed this characteristic comment:

"My reason, such as it is, is, reluctantly rebels when I am asked to believe that, after thousands of years of a not wholly fruitless civilization, not merely a new but the best and only way of managing this complicated world has been revealed to my old football captain, Sir Stafford Cripps."

Sir Stafford Cripps is one of the outstanding left-wingers—not referring to football—the British Labor party.

WHERE PREMIERS COME FROM

HON. WILLIAM JOHN PATTERSON, Saskatchewan's new Premier, is a native of Saskatchewan, while, one authority declares that only in one other case has a native Westerner achieved that office in a prairie province: Hon. John Norquay in Manitoba in the 70's. The birthplaces of the Premiers have been as follows:

	Old	Country	Ontario	Quebec	West
Manitoba	3	5	2	1	1
Saskatchewan	1	4	0	1	1
Alberta	2	5	0	0	0
	6	14	2	2	2

British Columbia has had three native-born Premiers and two from Ontario in the last thirty-five years. The prairie provinces have had fourteen Ontario-born first ministers since their organization.

Until the recent change was made in the Saskatchewan government, by the departure of former Premier Gardiner to take a portfolio in the King government, natives of Ontario were premiers of the provinces from the Quebec boundary to the Pacific ocean. They were Hepburn in Ontario, Bracken in Manitoba, Gardiner in Saskatchewan, Abernethy in Alberta and Pattullo in this province.

More than three centuries ago to-day the largest ship that ever sailed the seas, from Noah's Ark to the Normandie—according to the number who trace their descent from the passengers aboard it and the innumerable existing souvenirs, large and small, of the trip—arrived at Plymouth, Massachusetts, after a voyage from Southampton in sixty-three days. History says she carried 102 hardy Britons, but it is difficult to believe that that small company could have been so prolific as to account for the vast number who claim to have been descended from them, and from whose claims we must conclude that the Mayflower actually had a passenger list covering at least half of the population of the British Isles.

KITE LIFTS CARGO

The Halifax Chronicle

A "parachute kite" capable of lifting four tons of cargo has been successfully tested at Moscow, Russia. The "kite," a vast fabric dome 70 feet in diameter, raised four tons to a height of 4,000 feet in a wind of 25 feet per second velocity. The tests are being continued and Soviet authorities predict that it will be possible to devise "parachute trains" able to easily lift their heavy cargoes as far as the stratosphere.

IN DEFENCE OF THE BOW TIE

Vancouver women, answering a questionnaire, replied that the properly dressed man should not wear a bow tie. —News Item.

Ladies, I'm too old to care!
Little pride have I to shatter,
What the well-dressed man must wear
Long ago has ceased to matter.

But since you this feud renew,
Making me again the goat,
I rise to-day to question you,
What is wrong about a bow tie?

With this battle recommenced,
As I view the way you vote,
I wonder what have you against
Men like me who wear the bow tie?

Joined with Nellie now you stand
Giving out your sanctions only
To the gorgeous four-in-hand,
Leaving me an outcast lonely.

Since so few of us remain
True to early passions tender,
Should an old love I disdain
At my age for new-found splendor?

No! Though all your sex declare
Four-in-hand it is or no tie!
Fifty dressed or not, I swear
My devotion to the bow tie.

WARNING!

The Times urges its correspondents to restrict their contributions to 600 words. Henceforth it positively will not print communications which exceed that length.

These letters must be plainly written on one side of the paper only, and must be accompanied by the names and addresses of the writers, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith.

Letters will not be re-written for publication. If they are not legible no attempt will be made to read them.

Letters not used will not be returned to the writers.

Letters containing offensive personal reflections will not be printed.

These rules, which henceforth will be carried out absolutely, are designed as much for the protection of our patient readers as for that of The Times.

CAUTION!

The Times will not assume responsibility for the return to the writers of articles sent for publication in the Correspondents' Column or anywhere else in this newspaper, whether they are published or not, unless they have been specially solicited.

BANKS AND CREDIT

To the Editor:—I read with considerable interest in your Saturday issue the presidential address of Jackson Dods to the Canadian Bankers' Association.

Mr. Dods states there are 25,000 persons engaged in safeguarding $2,554,000,000 of 4,700,000 depositors in the ten chartered banks of Canada. According to this statement there is nearly one bank account to every two persons in Canada, an average of about $550 to the credit of each depositor and about $230 for every man, woman and child in the country.

Mr. Dods says: "Every sane-minded person realizes that the credit dispensed by the banks is based upon the capital supplied by shareholders, their restricted note issues and their depositors' funds," and this is followed by a heading that "banks do not create credit."

Mr. Dods also quotes H. J. Welch, author of "Money, Foreign Trade and Exchange," that "both loans and investments by banks can only be provided and made out of monies deposited by the public, and therefore out of assets representing such deposits."

Mr. Dods stated that the ten chartered banks have on deposit $2,554,000,000 and that their loans were $1,588,000,000 in October, 1929, and declined to $940,000,000 in July of this year, and later in his address he refers to current loans as $1,040,000,000. Between the end of 1929 and the close of September last the banks increased their investments portfolios from $448,000,000 to $1,103,000,000.

Every farmer in Saskatchewan knows (if his memory is good) that when he obtained a loan from his bank, a credit called a "deposit" was entered in his passbook.

Mr. Reginald McKenna, chairman of the Midland Bank, one of the largest banks in England, made the statement at a meeting of shareholders that "every bank loan and every purchase of securities by a bank creates a deposit, and the withdrawal of every bank loan and the sale of securities by a bank destroys a deposit."

Therefore, in the $2,554,000,000 of funds of depositors are included the $1,040,000,000 of current loans, and also the $1,103,000,000 referred to as the banks' investment portfolio (government and municipal bonds, etc.).

As less than 3 per cent ever leaves the bank in real money, these $1,103,000,000 expended by the ten chartered banks in the purchase of securities must be in the banks somewhere as deposits; as also are the $1,040,000,000 of loans (by book entry); and both must be included in the $2,554,000,000 of 4,700,000 depositors which these 25,000 persons are safeguarding. These two sums total $2,143,000,000, which, subtracted from the $2,554,000,000 before men-

Now, Mr. Editor, I am a farmer, and what I want to know is, "Do the banks create credit?"

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

NOVEMBER 28, 1910

(From The Times Files)

The board of management of the Y.W.C.A. has just completed the purchase of the Hollies, a large and popular boarding house at 756 Courtney Street, from the owner, Miss J. Hall, who for over two years has made it a popular resort for people of moderate means, who wished to combine the comforts of home life with the conveniences of a boarding house close to the centre of the city.

At Vancouver, Victorians who went over to the mainland on Saturday were treated to their first sight of snow this fall. Saturday night was bitterly cold, and on Sunday morning snow lay everywhere, and was still falling heavily at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Tokio, Nov. 28.—With the parting admonition of Count Okuma not to bombastically claim the discovery of the South Pole unless they brought back scientific proof, twenty-eight explorers under Lieut. Shirase, of the Japanese navy, are on their way southward to-day.

Telephone and telegraph communication has been established between Campbell River and Quatsino Cove on Valdes Island in Dominion Government general scheme to connect Vancouver Island, Valdes Island, Mary Island and other islands between Vancouver Island and the mainland.

The cadets of the High School held their first indoor gallery practice at the drill hall Saturday morning. Some very good scores were made, a few of the best being: Capt. Boggs, 27; L. G. Brown, 26; Cadet Beasley, 24; Cadet Manson, 24; L. C. Gerow, 21; Corporal Graves, 21; Lieut. Hamilton, 20; Cadet Sanson, 20; Cadet D. Loebe, 20; Cadet Heyland, 20, and Lieut. Stevens, 24.

LEADER URGES OLD VIRTUES

Gov. Talmadge of Georgia Arises as Democratic Opponent of Roosevelt

Atlanta, Nov. 28.—Governor Eugene Talmadge of Georgia appears to be the chief Democratic opponent of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

There is little in common between Long and Governor Talmadge except a certain facility at "just folks" politics, a consuming hatred of the New Deal, and all its works, and the willingness to fight outspokenly against it. There is nothing red about Governor Talmadge except his supporters. Most of his views are poles apart from Long's. Though he wears a bow tie, he is not a conservative in the sense of care to express personal fondness and admiration for Long. Talmadge's politics are far from the Share-the-

TOYS WANTED AT WORKSHOP

Scouts Begin Repairs on Christmas Toys For Needy
Children

Working in relays of two troupes each evening, the Boy Scouts of the city and district are busily engaged at their work of repairing old toys, to be given to children of needy families at Christmas.

Toys of any description and in any condition are more than welcomed, and anyone is invited to visit the workshop at 615 Yates Street, in the old premises formerly occupied by the Poodle Dog Cafe.

The workshop makes a special appeal this week for doll heads. Many headless dolls have been received amongst the toys donated.

To-night, St. Mary's and St. Louis College troupes are scheduled to go on duty at the workshop. On Saturdays, the Sea Scouts take over, and are responsible for any soldering work to be done.

A telephone call to G 4333, G 3296 or E 1475, will bring a boy to call for any toys which the donor is unable to deliver.

Records have been found showing that a woman in ancient Rome married her twenty-third husband, she being his twenty-fifth wife.

A.Y.P.A. Group Announces Plans

At the meeting of St. Luke's A.Y.P.A. Tuesday evening it was announced that a badminton match had been arranged with St. Paul's group, to be played in St. Luke's Hall on November 29. Arrangements have also been completed for an "amateur night" to be staged in St. John's auditorium on December 9. On December 13 St. Mark's will hold an "at home" for all A.Y.P.A. members. The local council, it was stated, plan to hold a social evening on one Sunday every quarter, the first being set for January 12 in Christ Church Cathedral. Badminton meetings on December 6 and 13 have been cancelled. It was announced that Ian Jack had been appointed representative on the Columbia Coast Mission Board.

It is not advisable to use gasoline as a cleaner on an automobile finish, since it will tend to dull the finish.

Coleman Stars In Film Role

C.P.R. Press Representative Gives Reality to Santa Claus Feature Which Will Be Released In Canadian Theatres Before Christmas

Herbert Travers Coleman, Canadian Pacific Railway press representative at Vancouver, has just made his debut as a featured artist in the movies, it was revealed to-day at the Empress Hotel by Lucien Roy, Associated Screen News photographer, of Montreal.

It is Mr. Roy's assignment to cover Canada, keep in touch with news events and record them in a series of "shorts" for reproduction in the theatres throughout the country.

Mr. Roy is a French-Canadian and a good photographer with a news sense. He rarely misses any happening of importance for he is constantly moving on his transcontinental beat and is equally at home in Victoria as in Montreal.

While in Vancouver this trip he conceived a seasonal idea for a sound feature and coaxed Mr. Coleman into taking the leading role.

The title of the film is "Santa Claus Comes to Town." Mr. Coleman, in the opinion of Mr. Roy, appeared to fit ideally into the role of Santa.

Disguised by a long beard, but carrying the red and white habiliments of Father Christmas with stately bearing, Mr. Coleman faced the camera as he gallantly tripped down with a large bag over his shoulder the gangway of an Empress liner overflying with spices, gold and toys from the vivid Orient.

The principal had mastered and unlearned an appropriate dialogue and the colorful arrival of Santa was duly recorded in sound and picture.

"That'll go over great," yelled Mr. Roy as he "cut" the camera.

"What about going farther east and giving continuity to the story?" "Sure," responded the accommodating press representative.

"Get me a locomotive and a man to pilot it and I'll make a star out of you yet," the Associated Screen News men chorled.

Co-operation is the watchword of Mr. Coleman, so he rang up the operating department and suggested that a locomotive for an unscheduled run would give him a great deal of satisfaction.

The engine, polished and gleaming, was shunted to the disposal of the cameraman and his Santa Claus and the rest of the journey was unfolded, with a snowstorm thrown in, to give reality and joy to Canadian kids.

The picture, Mr. Roy states, will be released during the holiday season.

ALUMNI PLANS BRANCH CLUBS

Annual Meeting of U.B.C. Association Held in Vancouver; Officers Elected

Great interest and enthusiasm is being shown in the reorganization plans under consideration for the Alumni Association of the University of British Columbia.

Fresh stimulus was given at the annual meeting of the association held recently in Vancouver. The address of the evening was given by President L. S. Kilnick, who spoke of interesting developments in university spheres. An energetic executive was elected consisting of old and new graduates. John N. Burnett was re-elected president and it is largely due to his enthusiasm that the Alumni Association has had such a successful past year.

A new constitution of the association which had been drawn up by a special committee was presented to the annual meeting.

Much interest is apparent in the plans introduced by the president whereby branch organizations of graduates of this university would be formed on the same constitution and have the same privileges as the home branch in Vancouver.

It has been pointed out that there are more graduates throughout the province and the Dominion than actually remain close to their Alma Mater. The various university reunions held throughout the province have paved the way for permanent organizations in those districts. Branches have already been formed in Vancouver, West Kootenays and there is great hope for further expansion and co-operation.

The pictures shown by C. E. Webb, district chief engineer of the Dominion Hydrometric Bureau, to illustrate his lecture on Monday night before the Victoria branch of the Engineering Institute, were loaned by F. A. Banks, resident engineer of the United States Bureau of Reclamation of the Coulee Dam. Mr. Webb spoke on "The Columbia River Basin and Grand Coulee Project."

First United Y.P.S. Enjoyed Social

Monday night at the First United Y.P.S. was of a social nature. The meeting was arranged by Douglas Balfour and Ken MacDonald. Elton Jones was master of ceremonies.

The games started off with "Radio Stars," the members being required to guess the name of the stars from their picture. A game which caused much enjoyment was "Renew Your Youth," which was won by Cyril Baker. Four two-minute speeches included that by Miss Helen Frendergast, who spoke on "Her Ideal Man"; Bill Irvine, elucidating "How, and Why I Play Golf," Len Baker on "How I Baked My First Pie," and George

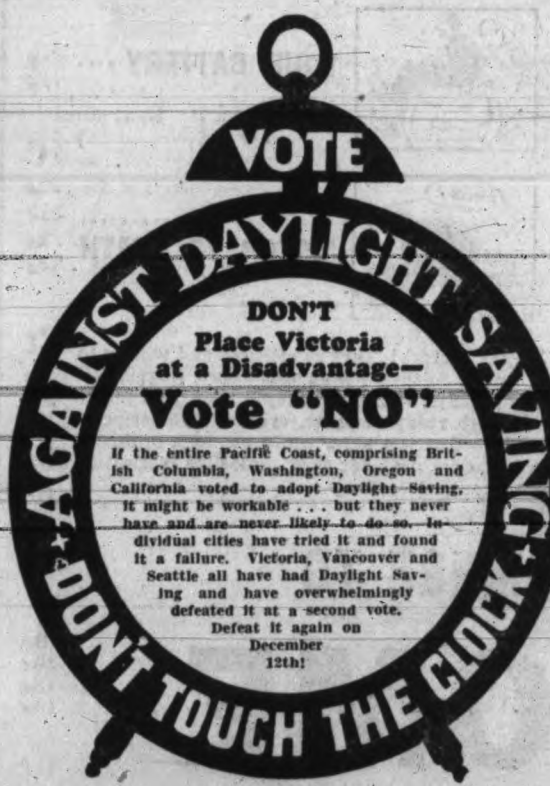

Dickson explained all about "My Ideal Girl."

Bill Irvine gave a piano solo, Rachmaninoff's "Polichinelle," and an encore, and Miss Ivy Bowles sang "Wagon Wheels," both being warmly applauded.

The very enjoyable meeting was brought to a close with refreshments served by the social committee, with Miss Bunny Lawrence in charge. Following the refreshments, the groups gathered around the piano for a sing song, led by Miss Ivy Bowles, with Bill Irvine at the piano.

Women Outshop The Men

From a Woman Correspondent

Women, so the feminists say when they feel talkative, can accomplish anything that a man can.

Maybe so—it is not especially important. One thing is certain, though. They can do several things that a man cannot do.

Christmas is coming. Holly wreaths and tinsel balls will appear shortly in store windows. Men will gaze at them day after day, and then, just before time for the carollers to sing hymns under their windows, they have some articles wrapped in white paper and tied with ribbon to give their wives, sweethearts, daughters, grandmothers. It will not be the masculine secretary that the boss will send shopping. It will be the feminine member of his staff.

NO MATCH FOR WOMEN

Men cannot shop. Women can. Full many a stenographer and secretary probably wishes as the Yuletide draws

Piles Go Quick

With Dr. Leonhardt's Prescription

Many sufferers from itching, bleeding or protruding piles have found out that quick relief can be had with an internal medicine.

Bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel is the cause of piles. The veins are congested and flabby, the bowel walls weak. That is why an internal medicine like HEM-ROID should be used. HEM-ROID stimulates the circulation, relieves the pressure of blood in the veins of the lower bowel and helps to heal and restore the sore, tender parts.

HEM-ROID is the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, who spent several years of his professional life in studying the cause of piles and the medicine that would remove them. His medicine succeeds because it tends to correct the cause.

No matter what kind of piles you have or how long you have had them, if you want to try HEM-ROID, you have our promise to give you back your money if you do not find quick and satisfying relief, after using just one bottle.

MacFarlane and Vancouver Drug Stores or any druggist can supply you.

near that she did not have superior accomplishments.

She may wish it, too, when an employer's wife has a birthday, or his great Aunt Minnie, who is in town for a few days, has to be taken to the theatre and there is no escort available.

Women, in the office world, go the second miles. They finish their letters, keep their records, say the boss is out when he is in, and in when he is expected shortly, and then undertake personal duties.

Men, being men, are considered slightly above the extra-curricular duties, women repeat with an acid comment that men should be asked to match spoons of silk and exchange the children's underwear for their employers' wives, too.

PERSONAL RITES

WOMEN'S RIGHTS

The women may be in their own right in objecting to the added work. However, a great many men are nice enough to lessen the office duties when the personal ones are being performed. The crux of the matter is not man's superiority. It might work the other way.

Say what we please, men and women are innately different. Women have been the homemakers since the first early-settler set up housekeeping in a cave in a woods somewhere. They have always attended to the small and personal rites of family life while men look care of the impersonal, wider range of activities. We may try to escape the pattern, but it follows us.

ULTIMATE BOON

It is not wrong that it should be so. It is due to a distinction between the two sexes that even the Industrial revolutions and all modern science cannot bridge.

It takes a very good thing that men think of women in connection with the home-like tasks. If they did not, the filing clerk would never ask the switchboard operator to go to the movies. She would sit, day after day, an efficient automaton who got the right numbers.

After all, every office girl has some ideas about romance and love and walls that shut away such things as pounding typewriters when the clock strikes six. If she was not looked upon as a woman with certain feminine charms, she would have small chance of doing anything in the evening but taking home some of the boss' letters to write.

Buying Christmas presents and matching silk may have their points. They mark a woman as a woman though she is the most efficient member of the staff.

PENITENTIARY INQUIRY SOON

Royal Commission Will Make Recommendations For Changes in Canadian System, But Lapointe Says Plans For Investigation Not Yet Complete

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—It is the intention of the government to appoint a royal commission to investigate Canada's penitentiary system, says Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, but plans for setting up the commission have not reached a stage where any announcement can be made.

Report of the Ontario Attorney-General on the case of David Meisner, serving a fifteen-year sentence for the John A. Labatt kidnapping, was being studied by departmental legal experts, Mr. Lapointe said yesterday evening, and he would not expect to be in a position to announce his decision for several days.

With respect to a report that the new government was about to loosen immigration restrictions, Mr. Lapointe, speaking as Acting Prime Minister, after a cabinet meeting yesterday, said the question had not yet come before the government, and he was not aware there was any such intention under consideration.

Speculation as to the future of the Canadian Wheat Board and the policy to be adopted by the government toward disposal of the wheat surplus still lacks any official background. Mr. Lapointe yesterday evening said there was nothing to announce in this respect. It has been strongly rumored that John I. McFarlane, chairman of the board, would be replaced by James R. Murray, vice-president and general manager of the Alberta Pacific Wheat Pool.

Following the death of Hon. Charles Murphy of Ottawa, the Prime Minister has a vacancy to fill in the Senate, and several names have been prominently mentioned. These include Frank O'Connor and W. T. Kennahan of Toronto, John Gleason, Ottawa; R. M. Burns, London, and J. J. McCann, member-elect for South Renfrew, Ont.

A seat must be found for Hon. C. A. Dunning, Minister of Finance, and it has been repeatedly rumored that Ontario would furnish it. Appointment of Mr. McCann to the Senate would open up South Renfrew. Although Senator Murphy lived in Ottawa the vacancy may be filled from any part of the province.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

The republic of China has frowned on the superstition, and has done much to educate the newer generations away from it, but the mass of the people still venerate the hairy dragon of ancestral China.

A single hair from this dragon is a token of special luck. During the great earthquake of 1918, in China, the evil "joss," or spirit, was supposed to have prevailed. When the Chinese felt the tremors in Hongkong, the inhabitants said that the great dragon had been tussling with this evil "joss," and had been striking the earth with its tail. Early the next day, many Chinese were afoot, and searched the streets of Hongkong for hairs of the dragon. And many said they had found what they had sought!

The stamp shown here is one of several dragon issues of China before it became a republic.

IL DUCE ON CANVAS LOOKS DOWN ON CONQUERED AREA

As though looking out from one huge canvas at another, this likeness of Benito Mussolini seems to be gazing at a scene which faithfully typifies Italian progress in the war of conquest in Ethiopia. Italian troops march forward to new gains, past the row of camouflaged tents, leaving behind them the ruins of a fort near Adigrat over which waves the Italian flag. Away from the shattered fortress stretch the barren wastes where attackers and defenders laid down their lives.

Mr. J. Angwin of Hongkong is a visitor to Victoria. He is staying at the Empress Hotel.

Mr. R. H. Murdoch, manager of Crane, Limited, has left for Montreal to attend the annual business conference of the company. He will return in three weeks.

Mrs. Bruce Hutchison accompanied Mr. Hutchison as far as Kamloops, on his way to Ottawa and New York recently. During his absence in the east she will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. F. P. McNamee in the latter city.

Mrs. K. C. Burness of Victoria, who has been the guest of Mrs. Edmund Newcombe in Ottawa since her return from England, has left for Winnipeg, to remain for a short time. Major Burness will join his wife in Winnipeg and they will proceed to their home in Victoria.

Mrs. K. C. Allen of Calgary, formerly of Victoria, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Andrews in Winnipeg, is being much entertained by hostesses of the prairie capital, among them being Mrs. Athol McBean, who gave a luncheon for her at the Golf and Country Club.

The Misses Muriel and Eileen Aylard of Victoria have been visiting in Vancouver and were among the guests at a no-host dinner party arranged by Mr. and Mrs. J. Anderson before the annual ball of the Pipes and Drums of the Seaford Highlanders at the Commodore Club yesterday evening.

At her home, "Kingscrag," Rockland Avenue, Mrs. J. H. King entertained at a luncheon party yesterday, when her guests included Princess Chikmatoff, Mrs. J. W. Troup, Mrs. R. W. Gibson, Mrs. W. C. Nichol, Mrs. F. B. Gregory, Mrs. William Sloan, Mrs. A. H. Mitchell, Mrs. J. MacDonald, Mrs. R. G. Heisterman, Mrs. P. E. Winslow, Mrs. E. G. Prior and Miss Eileen Dennis.

Among the guests registered at the Dominion Hotel are: Mr. C. H. Dickie, Vancouver; Mr. E. L. Schmitt, New York; Mr. B. Thomas, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. R. Sneddon, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Cowling, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. J. K. More, Vancouver; Mr. A. H. Clark, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Berger, Esaubrook, Col.; Mr. L. F. Bullard, Vancouver; Mr. C. H. Macdonald, Vancouver; Capt. J. A. Hunter, Vancouver.

Mrs. M. Nelson was hostess at a children's party on Tuesday afternoon at her home, 1417 Government Street, for her little daughter, Marjorie, who was celebrating her tenth birthday. The table was centered with a heart-shaped birthday cake, bearing ten lighted candles, also little colored candy baskets to mark the places of the little guests, who included Marjorie Nelson, "Bob" Ross, Lillian Crabbe, Simone Marquette, Doreen Drayton, Elaine Drayton and Lenora Churnoff.

A dinner party was given on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Molynaux, Easter Road, in honor of Mr. G. Lindgren, who celebrated his seventy-ninth birthday. A request piece over CPCT was greatly enjoyed, being "I Grow Too Old to Dream." A toast was then given to the guest of honor by Mr. West. After which the guests sat down to dine, the table being prettily decorated with pink and yellow roses and tall pink candles. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lindgren, Mr. and Mrs. Molin, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. West and Mrs. J. Anstut.

Success, social and financial, attended the first undertaking of the Victoria Board of Hearing Club to augment the funds of the club when yesterday evening in the Hampton Hall, Burnside Road, the members held a combined bridge and "500" party at which over 100 guests were present. The popularity of the event was due to the efforts of the president of the club, Miss Kate Gaudin, and her entertainment committee, Mrs. Guy Barclay, and by her refreshment committee, Mrs. H. Gahan. Miss Edith Boston, Mrs. G. Booth and Mrs. Brooker. A vote of thanks was extended to the members of the Burnside Bowling Club for their kindness in loaning the hall for the evening. The evening's interest was enhanced by the use of the Ardent Publican apparatus operated by Mr. Joseph Rose, a member of the club, and Mr. Halley. Prizes donated by friends of the club were won as follows: For contract bridge, Mrs. L. Lewis, Mr. Wharton and Mr. Swan, who tied, and Miss Babe Innes, consolation; auction bridge, Mrs. Mercer, Mr. Easton and the consolation to Mrs. Bailey; "500," Mrs. Brenton, and for checkers, Mr. McKay.

POPULAR PAIR WED YESTERDAY

Miss Latzi Bird Becomes Bride of Richard D. McCullough

St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, was attractively decorated with flowers and filled with friends of the contracting parties for the pretty ceremony which yesterday evening united in marriage Hilda Margaret (Latzi) Bird of Chaucer Street, Oak Bay, and the late Mr. H. H. Bird, and Mr. Richard D. McCullough, only son of Mrs. L. McCullough, Wildwood Avenue, and the late Mr. R. McCullough, Rev. Canon A. E. del. Nunne performed the ceremony.

The floral decorations of the church were arranged by Mrs. M. Blay and Mrs. J. Pinch. Standard baskets of rose chrysanthemums flanked the altar, while ivy and autumn flowers graced the chancel rails. The guest pews were indicated by clusters of lilies of the valley tied with large bows of tulle.

Mr. F. T. C. Wickes presided at the organ and rendered the wedding music, while during the signing of the register Mrs. Bernard Lanning sang "O Promise Me." The choir of St. Mary's was in attendance.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Arthur Bird, the bride was radiantly lovely in her wedding gown of oyster Chantilly lace, the skirt of which was semi-fitting to the knees from where it flared into a short train. The long-sleeved bodice had a fitted collar of lace, and encircling her waist was a belt of the same material, embroidered in each corner in a floral design, was worn beneath a coronet of orange blossoms. To complete the bridal attire, she carried a shower of white carnations, Ophelia roses and bouvardia.

The bridesmaids included a maid of honor, Miss Gwen Addison; two bridesmaids, the Misses Patricia Pennock and Peggy Gelling, and a dainty flower girl, little Miss Ruth Miller. The gowns worn by the maid of honor and bridesmaids were similarly fashioned of silk moire, with skirts ending in trains, the bodices trimmed with quilted collars of the material, and wide belts of the material encircling the waists. Their hats were of net to match

CO-EDS FLAY MALE DEBATER

Sydney Hermant's Praise of B.C. Beauties Resented in Toronto

Toronto, Nov. 28.—Sydney Hermant, B.A., who left the University of Toronto in a minor blaze of glory recently to represent his alma mater in interuniversity debates across Canada, may return to find his position more warm than bright.

If Mr. Hermant is correctly quoted in a recent issue of the Urbey, undergraduate newspaper of the University of British Columbia, he told an interviewer there that he had never seen so many beautiful girls as he had seen at the U. of B.C. and that "you do a lot of things here that we don't."

Disgust and resentment seethed across the U. of B.C. campus yesterday as students—mostly feminine—digested his reported remarks. He was accused by a leading girl student, Miss Marlene Griggs, of offering an insult to U. of T. co-eds, while others were equally outspoken and condemnatory in their comments.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Reid of Vancouver, who came over to Victoria, to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Latzi Bird, and Mr. R. D. McCullough yesterday evening, are the guests of Mrs. H. I. Bird, Chaucer Street, Oak Bay, who has also as her guests her daughter, Mrs. R. Davies of Vancouver. Mrs. L. McCullough, mother of the groom, has had as her guests for the wedding Mr. and Mrs. J. Mowat of Winnipeg, Mrs. J. S. Harper and Mrs. C. C. Mills, both of Calgary, Mr. J. R. Cowan of Ottawa and Mrs. R. Manson of Norwood, Manitoba.

Mrs. Alar Morkill, Provincial Commissioner of Girl Guides, left last night for the mainland to fill a series of engagements. This afternoon she will be the guest speaker at a meeting of the Local Association of New Westminsters at the home of Mrs. Galbraith; on Friday afternoon Mrs. J. Fyfe-Smith will entertain at a tea at her home, at which members of the Greater Vancouver interdivisional council have been invited to meet Mrs. Morkill, and on Friday evening she will be the guest of honor at a dinner to be given in the Hotel Georgia by the Guilders of Greater Vancouver. She will return to her home on Pemberton Road on Saturday morning.

The lecture room of St. Andrew's Church presented a gay and hospitable appearance yesterday afternoon when the Women's Guild held their annual silver tea. Mrs. John Cochrane, the president, welcomed the many visitors. The receipts were in charge of Mrs. Head, the treasurer, and Mrs. George Sanson, Miss Ellnor Cudlip had charge of the orthophonic programme, which was much enjoyed. Mrs. E. H. Griffiths and Mrs. Marling were responsible for the attractive decorations, the small tea tables being centred with rose-colored chrysanthemums and the room was decorated with autumn foliage. Mrs. A. E. Starr was the general convenor, assisted by the social committee, including Mrs. M. R. Pearce, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. E. A. Robinson, Mrs. Cudlip, Mrs. D. Scott, Mrs. F. A. Rounding, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Paulson, Mrs. A. E. Hood and Mrs. Fisk.

Have you found the SUNNY PACKAGE on your grocer's shelf?

It's a delicious ready-to-eat cereal. Millions of Canadians have found Kellogg's ALL-BRAN a safe, effective means of correcting common constipation—the kind caused by lack of "bulk" in the menu.

Laboratory measurements show that ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamins B and iron.

The "bulk" in this tempting cereal is more effective than that found in fruits and vegetables—because it resists digestion better. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass. Gently, this cleans out the intestinal waste.

Isn't this natural food better than taking potent medicines? Two tablespoons of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases with each meal. If this fails to give relief, see your doctor.

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or cook into appetizing recipes. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains much needed "bulk" than part-bran products. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

MUSICAL IS BIG SUCCESS

Delightful Programme at Mrs. W. C. Nichol's Under I.O.D.E. Auspices

Perhaps because it is a survival of the days when music was an integral part of the home life—whence arose the term "chamber music"—there is something particularly appealing in a programme presented in the intimacy of a home setting which is lacking in the more impersonal setting of a public auditorium.

Invested with this appeal was the delightful musical sponsored by the Gonzales Chapter I.O.D.E. and presented yesterday evening at "Rose-dear" Rockland Avenue, the home of Mrs. Walter C. Nichol, the regent. The programme included piano solos by Mrs. Hartly Morden, and songs by Mrs. Eva Baird, dramatic soprano, and by Mrs. Nichol, soprano.

Mrs. Morden, whose playing reveals her as a well-equipped and gifted pianist, opened the programme with Schumann's "Widmung," concluding with the Moszkowski waltz, Op. 34 No. 1. Mrs. Morden, despite her generous and exacting contribution to the programme, graciously responded to the demand for encores, with the charming Godowski waltz "Alteisen" and "The Fountain."

Mrs. Eva Baird, whose singing was interlarded with her usual artistic refinement and insight, chose three lovely groups, opening with Massenet's "Crepuscule," "Les Jardins d'Amour," by Debussy, the Brahms "Immer leise wird mein Schlimmer" and Hugo Wolf's "Er lach' in German, followed by an encore, "Spring Is Here."

Later she gave a brilliant rendering of the Wagner aria "Die Walküre," and for her English group chose the delightful "Clouds" (Ernest Fischer), "Epitaph" (Maurice Beley), Michael Heide's "Piper" and Horstmann's "Bird of the Wilderness." Mrs. Nichol sang lent, adequate and sympathetic support at the piano.

Mrs. Nichol's group in English, French and German, in each of which the singer showed a meticulous attention to enunciation which merits much praise, included Jensen's "Lehn Deine Wangen," Reynold's "Hahn's 'L'Indreule,' Mendelssohn's lovely "The First Violet," and in response to the enthusiastic demands for an encore, Margery Kennedy-Fraser's hauntingly beautiful "Land of Heart's Desire." Mr. Edgar Holloway was at the piano.

The evident pleasure of the gathering was demonstrated with frequent and generous applause, supplemented with many lovely bouquets for each of the artists.

Among the many guests were: Mayor and Mrs. David Leeming, Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Rickard, L. O. Collin Woodhall, A. N. and Mrs. Woodhall, Mrs. Hugo Beaven, Mrs. W. Curtis Sampson, Miss Alexander, Mrs. Wm. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCallum, Phillips, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. McCallum, Mr. and Mrs. F. Saxton White, Capt. and Mrs. A. T. B. ## Debutantes Carry Sandwich Boards

New York, Nov. 28.—New York now has sandwich-women. They are not drug store cowgirls, but Park Avenue debutantes who have been parading the midtown streets with signs on their backs hallyhoing the Poetry Ball for impoverished rhytms.

St. John's Bazaar.—The ladies of St. John's Guild will hold their annual bazaar on Tuesday, December 3. Among the attractions there will be fancywork for Christmas gifts, home cooking, candy and white elephant stall, bran pie for the children, and afternoon tea served by the members of the W.A. The formal opening will be at 2 o'clock.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

BABY'S MILK DIET SATISFIES MOST OF HIS NEED FOR WATER

It seems quite natural for the baby who gets quantities of food by breast or by bottle to be indifferent to drinks of water. Anyone who observes a baby daily will find that when the formula gets to be less satisfying—as indicated by shorter sleeping periods and diminished gains in weight—the baby will drink far more water than when the opposite condition prevails.

Water should be offered by spoon or bottle to a baby between feeding periods, when awake, but there need be no great to-do about it if the baby does not accept it. The probability is that his fluid needs are being well satisfied by his regular feedings.

BABY GAINS FAST

Mrs. A. R. asks this question and some others: "My baby weighed seven pounds at birth and now at four and one-half months weighs ten pounds. He is fed for twenty minutes at the breast. In addition he gets two ounces of orange juice and two tablespoons of pre-cooked cereal. I was giving him cod liver oil but it upset him, so I have stopped it indefinitely."

"He refuses water most of the time, never taking over one ounce a day. Should I add something to the water to make him drink it?"

DILUTE ORANGE JUICE

"Since giving him the cereal he has been slightly constipated, which he never was before. What information can you give me on these subjects?"

You can dilute the two ounces of orange juice with two of boiled water and that offers at least three ounces of water in addition to the fluid baby is getting in the milk. The gain has been so large that my suspicion is that you are feeding much oftener than once in four hours. Stick conscientiously to that schedule.

It is not unusual when cereal is first offered, for the baby to develop some slight diarrhea, or some constipation. I suggest that you—instead of the amounts you give, keeping these at about one teaspoonful twice daily until this reaction wears off, then increasing cautiously. This should prevent any digestive disturbance.

The latest, "Cod Liver Oil and the Viscerota" may be had for self-addressed and three-cent stamped envelope sent to Myrtle Meyer Eldred of the "Your Baby and Mine" department of this newspaper.

If the baby can't take plain cod liver oil then have the doctor advise some other form of vitamin D. It is pretty dangerous for you to decide, without the doctor's advice, to drop this indefinitely.

BUSY ON BAZAAR

MRS. DOROTHY SPURR, president of the Greater Victoria Soroptimist Club, which is holding a Christmas bazaar on Saturday, December 4, from 2 to 6 o'clock, in the Metropolitan Building, Courtenay Street, opposite the Post Office. Among the special attractions will be novelties, aprons, candles, games of skill, ten-pin bowling and a Christmas gift-wrapping booth. Proceeds will be used for the Soroptimist Welfare Fund.

ARMLESS GIRL IS A MOTHER

University Graduate Triumphs Over Physical Handicap; Baby Normal

Associated Press

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Martha Hale Molendyk, armless woman of Berkeley, added motherhood to her life's triumphs yesterday. A nine-pound girl, perfectly formed, was born to her at an Oakland hospital.

Mrs. Molendyk, better known by her maiden name Martha Hale, under which she was graduated from the University of California, won wide fame for the manner in which she overcame her physical handicap.

She was born without arms but refused to be an object of pity. She learned to sew, embroider, paint, write, swim and do most of the things dear to the heart of a normal girl by developing the use of her feet and toes.

She learned to handle a knife and fork, at table, with her carefully-manicured feet as deftly as the average person with hands.

She was graduated from the university in 1926, then took up social work which she carried on until her marriage in 1932 to Albert Molendyk, an insurance salesman.

WIVES SENTENCE ERRING MATES

Canadian Press

Chicago, Nov. 28.—The wives passed the sentences on wifebeaters in Judge Robert Dunne's court yesterday, but out of fifty-six defendants only three were sent to jail.

Mrs. Mary McNulty said her husband, William, not only had squandered his last pay cheque but had beaten her. He drew sixty days.

A sister, Anna, not a wife, refused to take Frank Penion, thirty-two, had been misbehaving again after having recently been placed on probation. He got 100 days.

Anna Cypwick decided her husband had earned three months for habitual loafing, spending her $500 savings and shouting profanity before the children.

Mrs. Nellie Shaughnessy, however, proudly said her Joe now had a job and wasn't kicking her on the ear any more. He was discharged.

City Temple Y.P.S. Discuss Creeds

The weekly meeting of the Victoria City Temple Y.P.S. took place in the social hall Tuesday evening. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Ruth Hanning. The feature of the business was a telephone bridge to be held in January.

Following the business the devotional convenor, Ralph Holt, introduced the speakers of the evening, who spoke on foreign people and their religions. Those taking part were as follows: Elsie Clarke on "Hinduism," Beale Middleton on "Mohammedanism," Adrian Peckhold on "Primitive People and Their Religions," Ernie Coleman on "Buddhism in Tibet," Sybil Crawford on "Judaism."

Following the piano solo by Dorothy Holt, Kathleen Clark sang "Sunrise and You" and "If Winter Comes," accompanied by Mrs. Heiden.

Next week's meeting is in charge of the citizenship convenor. All young people are asked to attend.

Belmont United W.A.—The regular monthly meeting of the W.A. of Belmont United Church was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Chapman, 1487 Gladstone Avenue, with a good attendance of members and visitors. The president, Mrs. C. Wharton, was in the chair. The meeting opened with a devotional period, after which the committees gave their reports for the month, which were very satisfactory. Final arrangements were made for the sale of work and afternoon tea to be held in the church classrooms, on the afternoon of Wednesday, December 11. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. Emery on Tuesday, December 17. The meeting closed with the Misses' benediction, after which the hostess served dainty refreshments.

JUBILEE W.A. MAKES GIFT

Vote $410 For Inductotherm For Hospital; Ball Report Given

An inductotherm, to cost $410, will be added to the equipment of the Royal Jubilee Hospital in the near future. This valuable addition will be given by the senior women's auxiliary, the necessary expenditure being authorized at its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, in response to a request from the board of directors. Mrs. John-Bethman presided.

BALL A SUCCESS

The final result of the recent hospital ball was announced and the net proceeds totaled $680.68, which sum will be equally divided between the senior and junior auxiliaries. Mrs. E. Z. Denison, convenor of the ball in conjunction with Mrs. E. H. H. Ker, was present at the meeting, and votes of thanks were extended to her and Mrs. Ker. Mrs. J. Sutherland Brown, convenor of the bridge; Miss Helen Crawford, ticket convenor, and sincere thanks were also given the press for generous publicity and the general public for its whole-hearted support in making the ball such an outstanding success.

Mrs. P. E. Taylor reported $30 having been received in dues from the following: Mrs. Vaughan Roberts, Miss A. Turner, Mrs. E. M. Harris, Mrs. D. E. Campbell, Mrs. A. T. Goward, Miss C. I. Alexander and Mrs. Fred McGregor.

Miss Hall reported that she and Mrs. R. H. Oliver had visited the wards during the past month and had found the patients happy and comfortable.

CHRISTMAS PLANS

Plans were made for the usual Christmas cheer for the patients and staff and the arrangements were left in the hands of Mrs. E. H. Griffiths, who has been convenor of this work for many years.

Miss Mitchell asked the auxiliary to donate tobacco for the aged men in the new hospital annex and the necessary amount was voted until other arrangements could be made.

Plans for the annual linen shower on St. Valentine's Day, February 14, were made.

Miss Curry who, with Mrs. Cecil French, attended the British Columbia Hospitals' convention at representatives of the auxiliary, gave an interesting report of the meetings.

News of Clubwomen

To Hold Showers—Court Maple Leaf, A.O.P. will hold a shower for their new members at the home of Mrs. E. Nunn, 3015 Quadra Street. Sisters are asked to bring along their donations, also donations of groceries for the household. The show will be a social game of cards for those wishing to play.

Navy League W.A.—The Women's Auxiliary to the Navy League will hold its next regular meeting Friday, at 2:30 o'clock in Navy League headquarters, Bastion Building. All members are urged to be present and mothers and friends of the Rainbow Sea Cadets are invited to attend and will be cordially welcomed. The December meeting will be canceled.

Orange Juveniles.—The regular meeting of Pride of Victoria No. 55 was held in the Orange Hall recently. Miss E. Humphries presiding. There was a good attendance and splendid reports submitted. The election of officers took place. Mrs. Ashworth, past guardian, took charge of the election, assisted by Mrs. Baron. Dorothy mistress of Victoria Purple Star 104, Mrs. Miller, worthy mistress of Britannia 216 and Mrs. Carlow, deputy mistress of Queen of the Island 209. Mr. West, guardian of the boys' juvenile lodge, gave a very inspiring talk.

W.C.T.U. Essay.—In order that as large a number as possible may take part in the essay contest, "The Effect of Alcohol on Human Life," sponsored by the W.C.T.U., it has been decided to set the closing date as December 10. Contestants may inquire from the reference librarian at the Victoria Public Library about pamphlets which are not on display and which deal with the subject, many of which contain the opinions of such world-famous authorities as the British Medical Journal, Sir Philip Snowden, Mr. Thomas Edison, Dr. Charles E. Mayo, and the late Dr. A. P. Proctor of Vancouver. The prizes in each class will be: first, $10; second, $5; and papers should be sent to Mrs. M. C. Wilkinson, 1211 Hampshire Road.

COSMETICS ARE FINE TO GIVE MOTHER

By ALICIA HART
She probably has told you that she needs new house dresses, pans for the kitchen and fabric for draperies, but if you want to make mother doubly glad that you're her child, put at least one beauty gift in her Christmas stocking.

If her own hair has been straggly for months because the budget has been slightly unbalanced ever since the children started back to college in September, pay for a fine permanent wave. It's a good shop and hang a card that says so on mother's side of the Christmas tree. If you want to do the whole thing up right, buy her several scalp conditioning treatments—that she can get prior to the appointment for the wave.

If her dressing table, except for one cream and the makeup she simply has to have, is quite bare, how about a treatment box that contains two creams, a lotion and a powder base especially suited to her type of skin? If you can't figure this out for yourself, ask one of her best friends to advise you.

Housework being what it is as far as hand beauty is concerned, mother undoubtedly would love a huge bottle of lotion and several pairs of rubber gloves. You might look at new little sets which contain gloves, treated inside with almond oil, special hand soap and a hand cream.

A manicure outfit, with cuticle remover, lots of orange sticks and emery boards, powder polish and buffer as well as a neutral colored liquid enamel and a cuticle cream to use at night makes a perfect gift for one who does her own nails.

If mother never has had a dressing table, buy an unpainted one, enamel it a color to harmonize with her room, add a ruffled skirt and a really good mirror and see how happy she will be. This, plus a few items which you should be able to persuade the rest of the family to donate, is likely to make your mother's eyes sparkle more brightly than would an array of new pots and pans. After all, you know how you feel when you see all of your packages filled only with presents you'd have to buy later on anyway.

The Times will run its Boy Scout Notes each Thursday. Notices and other events of interest to the troops should be in at The Times office not later than Tuesday evening.

The Thirteenth Victoria Scouts and Cub parents' group committee held a successful telephone bridge recently. The hostesses were: Mrs. H. G. Carter, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. A. Mainprize, and J. Slater. The first prize was won by H. Edwards and the second by Mrs. Simmons.

The weekly meeting of the St. Paul's Scout troop was held on Wednesday last. It opened with Flag Break by Duty Patrol Leader J. Waldon. Inspection, roll call and collection of dues followed. Instructions on signaling in the corners was held. The forthcoming events were then conveyed to the group. Two boys came to the troop for the first time, these being A. Phillips and A. Myatt. The meeting closed with a Flag Down. A court of honor was held after the meeting.

Speaking of the world tour of Lord Baden-Powell and herself, which recently concluded with their visit to Canada, Lady Baden-Powell mentioned their stay in Java. "I might say there isn't a poor person in all of Java. Of course, the native diet is frugal—a handful of rice and a couple of bananas is sufficient each day. But we could learn a lot from the attitude of these eastern people. Their kindness, their firm spirit and their goodness shine from their eyes."

Two rescues from drowning within a half hour was the feat of a fifteen-year-old Scout, Patrol Leader Jack Holmes of Blackpool, England. For the first rescue, Holmes leaped from a breakwater and swam some distance through a rough sea to bring in an unconscious woman bather. While resting with a companion there came a cry for help from an exhausted man, and the Scout, with his chin, again plunged in and brought the man ashore. The unusual rescue feat was recognized by the award of the Scout Silver Cross.

"The reason for the growth of Scouting is that the idea of Scouting is simple and pre-eminently right. It meets a common human need and is rightly based upon the responsible education of boyhood, adventure, open-air exercise and ability for doing things together," Dr. Cyril Norwood, former headmaster of Harrow.

After a brief rest following their Canadian tour, Lord and Lady Baden-Powell are now en route to Africa, to attend the big African Scout Jamboree at East London in January. On the way down the east coast they will meet Scouts and Guides at Mombasa, Zanzibar, Beira, and other places, and will return by the west coast, stopping at numerous ports where Scouting has been established.

Although the Boy Scout code would not permit bull fighting, a successful battle, Torador fashion, with a pitchfork as a weapon, won a Silver Cross for Scout Leslie Wilkinson, fifteen, of Northants, England. The animal had twice tossed a farmer when the boy arrived. He attacked the beast with the fork, jabbing it until it turned and pursued him. He leaped a fence to safety, the farmer meanwhile crawling out of danger. Completing his good turn the Scout rendered first aid to the injured man.

As a result of the success of the big Scout Jamboree near Melbourne over the last year-end, South Australian Scouts are planning a big "Corroboree" for December 26, 1936, to January 4, 1937. It will be held on a 200-acre site in the Mount Lotfy ranges ten miles from Adelaide. Scouts from all other countries will be invited.

Proving its citizens still forward looking, the ancient port of Plymouth, from which sailed the venturing Pilgrim Fathers, will next August hold a big West Country Scout Jamboree. Lord Baden-Powell will attend, and Scouts from other lands will be invited, including American Boy Scout descendants of the Pilgrim "scouter" who first settled New England.

Indicating that the tenacity displayed by Scout Jack Cornwell, V.C. (posthumous) at the battle of Jutland, is a family characteristic, Scout Tim Cornwell, fifteen, a younger cousin of Jack, performed an unusual feat of endurance in Scotland this summer during a "Train Cruise" of English Scouts. Returning in the evening with a party of eighty from a climb to the summit of Ben Nevis, he learned that his Scoutmaster's hat and coat had been left behind in the snow at the crest. Early next morning Tim Cornwell organized a party of Rover Scouts, repeated the climb, and returned with the lost articles.

Sees Danger In Narrow Outlook

Rev. W. J. Sipprell Fears Dire Results From Nationalistic Views

Nationalism and parochialism are driving the world toward destruction as far as humanity is concerned, said Rev. W. J. Sipprell, D.D., in an address to the Victoria West Forum at Victoria West United Church yesterday evening.

An international mind was required to understand problems of to-day, the speaker said. The problems themselves arose out of misunderstanding, limited knowledge, selfish greed and self-interest.

By talking with educated people of other races, persons could broaden their viewpoint, he said. He urged his hearers to listen to the talks of important visitors to the city whenever they could. It would widen their appreciation of world problems.

FAVORS FAIR IN SEPTEMBER

Entries Questionable If Exhibition Held Earlier, Leader States

While the final decision will rest with members of the board of directors, Alderman T. W. C. Hawkins, president of the British Columbia Agricultural Association, favors an early September date rather than a week in August for Victoria's next fair, according to a statement made by him to-day.

His opinion on the matter was given following confirmation of the fact a profit of $6,985.85 had been realized on the 1935 exhibition here. Alderman Hawkins noted that figure could be regarded as particularly good, since four years ago he had been required to sign his personal note to the bank to secure a loan of $2,000 to complete payment of prize money.

DATE QUESTION

Regarding dates, Alderman Hawkins stated that from conversations he had held with agricultural interests in the province, he had learned that the weathering would keep them from the Victoria fair unless it were held in September.

The Vancouver exhibition is held annually during the week which includes Labor Day and Alderman Hawkins favors the week starting on the Saturday following that holiday in order to secure several of the entries annually filed in Vancouver. Directors are now busy drafting plans for next year's exhibition which will celebrate the diamond jubilee of Victoria's fair.

RUSE DEFEATS CONTRACT

Daring Discards of Opponent Prevent Declarer From Properly Placing Remaining Cards

By WM. E. MCKENNEY

To-day's hand shows an example of masterful defence. The West hand was played by Elmer J. Babin, president of the Cleveland Whist Club, and individual champion of Ohio.

After holding the first club trick, West continued with the queen of clubs and South ruffed. Declarer now played the king of diamonds, followed by a small diamond to dummy's ace, and a heart finesse lost to West's queen.

West could not lead a heart or a spade without losing a trick, so he was obliged to continue the clubs, and South ruffed again. It was thoroughly evident from West's double that he held both the king of hearts and the king of spades; so South laid down the ace of hearts and then played his last diamond.

If West should ruff with the king of hearts, he would be obliged either to lead away from his king of spades, or to lead a club and give South a ruff and a discard. His only chance was to let declarer run the remaining diamonds and hope for an extra trick at the end. This, however, would require three discards and would present a further dilemma. If West should discard all his clubs, he would be the victim of an easy end-play in spades, while if he discarded a either the spades or the clubs. The last club might very well be in the East hand, and West's discarding certainly looked as though he had either the jack or ten of spades with his king.

Therefore, declarer threw West in with the king of hearts, fully expecting a spade lead which would make his contract. Imagine his chagrin when he found the king of spades was alone, and West laid down a club for the setting trick. (Copyright, 1935, N.E.A. Service, Inc.)

BEACON HILL

By Margaret E. Marley

Beacon Hill, then mount of splendor, Nature's beauty doth unfold, Human lips could never render Words to tell what we behold.

Climbing up the steep, November seems as if it were but June; There we view the green leaves tender, And the flowers yet in bloom.

Standing on thy summit, o'er us There appears the azure blue, Western sunset, oh how glorious! Casts about its rosy hue.

There we view the snow-capped mountains; Oh, the grandeur! What a sight! Like Mount Pisgah, we see fountains Of pure joy from left to right.

Beauty graciously hath decked thee, Beacon Hill; none can compare! Beauty spot by nature dressed—we Say a bit of heaven there.

DYNAMITE WAS FOUND IN OVEN

Hunters Had Startling Experience in West Coast Cabin

Port Alberni, Nov. 28.—A party of three hunters from Vancouver visited the district over the week end intent on securing some game. They decided to hunt in the China Creek district, but the late Sunday afternoon found them without any deer and drenched to the skin, for the rain had fallen heavily all day.

Coming to a miner's cabin, they decided to spend the night there, the miner being absent. Soon a blinding fire was roaring in the stove, and the two men lost no time in removing their clothes and hanging them up to dry while they sat around in their underwear listening to the wind and heavy rain.

Presently they smelled wood burning in the oven and one of them opened it. He stood staring into the oven. He turned pale. His friends crept over and looked in.

In the oven was a box of dynamite and the sawdust in which the sticks were packed was smoking. Beside it was a box of caps just starting to smolder. Evidently the miner had left the powder in the oven to keep dry.

Out of the door safely and down the dirt trail as fast as they could travel they went, clad only in their underwear with the rain coming down in torrents.

They spent the next several hours huddled under a fir tree; later they crept back to the cabin, took their clothes outside, dressed and waited for daylight.

OPENING FOR LOCAL TALENT

Assistant Director of "Stop, Look and Love" Gives Opinion on Movies Here

Movie work offers more opportunities in Victoria at the present time than it has in Hollywood in many years, in the opinion of J. Callahan, assistant director of the Central Films production "Stop, Look and Love."

In Hollywood the movie field is completely closed to amateur talent. Mr. Callahan said at the Dominion Hotel this morning.

Thousands of extras are always available in the California city to fill parts, from Shakespearean actors to bronc-busters. Here the talent has to be recruited with patience out of the amateur field.

The work takes time and money, but the results obtained are highly encouraging.

If the results of the present production come up to expectation, he said, Victoria would soon see an influx of movie concerns of all sorts, some good and some bad, and with them a flow of money to the city as a whole.

To comply with the British quota laws, Central Films Limited, which is a subsidiary of Columbia Pictures, was spending 75 per cent of all the money going into the production in this city. The processing of the film was about all that was being done in Hollywood.

Every cent of this money had come from outside the city.

SUPPORT IS URGED

He urged that the city give its fullest support to a venture which was taking not a single cent of local money, and which could do nothing but benefit the city generally.

The interests backing "Stop, Look and Love" were the same as those which had financed "It Happened One Night" and other successes of the same calibre.

As an example of the opportunities offered by movie production here, he quoted the case of a bell-hop in a Vancouver hotel, who played his real life part in the scenes which the company shot in the mainland city. Mr. Callahan stated that there was the possibility of a serious movie career before this boy.

Mr. Callahan has been connected with the show business since he was fifteen. He started out on a Mississippi showboat, then went through the whole range of burlesque shows, honky-tonks and vaudeville until he finally came to Hollywood, where he has built up a reputation in the direction end of the film business.

Production of "Stop, Look and Love" is going ahead fast after a few minor setbacks in its earlier stages, and work should be completed by the end of this week.

The production staff believe that they have a really good picture. The final outdoor shots await only good weather. They include a railway scene with a specially chartered E. and N. train on the line the other side of Langford, and airplane shots in which Ernest Ewe and Cecil Ewe will be the pilots.

C. J. McDowell spoke on national policies.

Salvation Army Plans Campaign

Has Increased Work to Do at Christmas; Knows Needs of Many Citizens

The Salvation Army is making plans for the Christmas activities of the organization, according to Adjutant Sharp, district organizer.

As in the past, the approach of the festive season brings a special claim on the Army, and ways and means are being planned to again meet the situation. It is contrary to Army principles and methods to administer help indiscriminately, and arrangements are made for every case to be thoroughly investigated, the Army co-operating with other agencies to avoid duplication. Then the Army is in an especially favored position to know those whose needs are great, the regular visits paid to the homes giving first-hand knowledge of those cases, many of whom would never ask for aid.

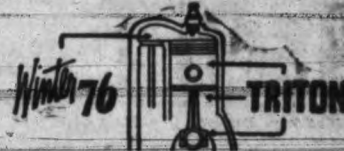

Last year 380 hampers were supplied, each being of the standard size for the family concerned. The contact thus made enables the Army workers to follow up many cases and inspires confidence that open up the way for permanent moral and spiritual uplift. The aim of the Salvation Army is to give an increasingly efficient service to the community, to get maximum results with a minimum of cost, this being realized more than ever during the last year, when the work of the Army throughout the Dominion was administered with a four per cent overhead. The officers and welfare workers are experienced in dealing with the needs of the people, and while ever-ready to serve, it is especially at this season of the year that the work is most essential.

The British Royal Mint has issued 162,602,000 pennies, 87,000,000 half-pennies, 91,000,000 sixpences, 32,000,000 farthings, and 16,000,000 "three-penny bits" during the last five years.

DOUBLE QUICK STARTING!

With WINTER 76 GASOLINE AND

Highly volatile at low temperatures... ignites instantly. Result—Double Quick Starting.

Cold motor starting requires the combination of a gasoline that vaporizes instantly, and a motor oil that will not become viscous and thick at low temperatures and act as a drag on the motor.

Winter 76 Gasoline gives an instant start at low temperatures—because it contains the correct proportion of highly volatile elements which vaporize quickly and thoroughly.

Triton Motor Oil flows freely at sub-zero temperatures, permitting the starter to turn over the motor easier and faster. This is due to the fact it is free of all wax and low-grade viscous materials, which cause ordinary oils to thicken when cold.

With Winter 76 in the tank and Triton in the crank-case, you minimize cold-motor wear and increase all-round motor efficiency.

Watch for the two banners—the orange 76 and the blue and white Triton. For double quick starting use Winter 76 and Triton. Start today.

Philadelphia Wins Over Boston Squad

Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—Philadelphia Ramblers took a firmer grasp on first place in the Canadian-American Hockey League yesterday evening by defeating Boston 4 to 1.

The league leaders came from behind to win their fifth game in six starts after Boston scored first, on Hergeshimer's goal. Shilkey's goal tied the score and Sammy McManus' unassisted goal in the second period gave Philadelphia the lead.

Boston weakened in the last period and Philadelphia assured victory on goals by Wares and Watson.

Chicago Hawks Are After Right Winger

Montreal, Nov. 28.—Chicago Black Hawks are still in search of a capable right winger, it was learned here yesterday.

Manager Clem Louglin of the mid-west National Hockey League team approached Montreal Canadiens this week in an effort to obtain Wildor Larochelle, Johnny Gagnon or Leroy Goldworthy, particularly Goldworthy, who formerly played with the Hawks and is popular in Chicago.

Chicago has only one right hand shot, Mush March, and Loughlin had moved two left-handers, Donnie McPadden and Norm Locking over to the right boards.

Six thousand one hundred and fifty miles of paper, half a yard wide, was used in printing the 16,000,000 copies of the Highway Code recently distributed in England.

AUDITS ARE INVESTIGATED

CIRCULARS REPORTED
Briefly, the charges include:

That Stead and a member of his staff, C. E. Field, had used the services of Miss Mary E. Devere, while she was working for the city relief office in 1933 and 1934, to send out circulars pertaining to a liquor business in which they were engaged. It was alleged Mr. Wardhaugh knew of this.

That Stead had monopolized the services of one of his junior staff members to adjust his bank account "by sending him to the General Hospital and other city departments to borrow money on Stead's cheques for the purpose of procuring money to meet other outstanding cheques of Stead's which were falling due." Mr. Wardhaugh was stated to have been told of this.

POLL MAN AUDIT

That nothing was done about a criticism by Tucker of a poll tax department audit of 1931 and 1932, performed by Field and approved by Stead. Field was discharged August 1, 1934.

That Woodford, while internal auditor in 1930, had after attending a secret meeting at the City Hall, told Tucker he was to close his inquiry into the relief office as quietly as possible so as not to disturb the staff, as the matter was not to be proceeded with. Tucker said he protested to Alderman G. C. Miller and W. H. Lembe, and that the subsequent inquiry showed serious defalcations had taken place in the department.

REFUND MADE

Tucker, charged he had been told by Woodford he had, in 1929, recommended to A. J. Pilkington, then comptroller, the suppression of a "clothing scandal" report which involved aldermen as well as civic officials. Tucker later learned Woodford had made a verbal report and that refund of about $1,300 was subsequently made by supply firms.

Tucker also charged there was unnecessary delay on his recommendation for additional investigations into the "sweeping department" in 1930. Subsequent inquiry showed defalcations of about $1,000 a month as far back as Tucker traced, which was to 1922.

These, he said, were of domestic character, and all capable of cure.

PERIOD OF PROMISE
Despite troubles naturally incident to a period of depression, Canada had much to be thankful for and there existed the feeling that the country now entered a new era of promise and hope.

Increased trade and postponement of large public works where the cost was disproportionate to the direct stimulus given employment were cited as essentials to complete recovery in Canada.

Sir Edward expressed considered confidence in the future of the Dominion, touched on some of the outstanding problems and levelled sympathetic criticism at those who advocated radical solutions.

The steadiness of the Canadian people in time of stress, he found, held promise for a great future.

"Out of the depression," he said, "came a critical attitude of thinking that a man with wealth or position must have something wrong with him. It was not unnatural that this opinion should exist, but it was unnatural that it should have found expression as it was in Canada in the last few years."

"I never could see the virtue of trying to destroy because we have found defects in our system. There is no reason to burn down the house because there are a few cockroaches in the cellar."

GREAT SUPPORT
Canadians had come through the depression psychologically and otherwise infinitely stronger than they were two years ago. Indeed, so level-headed and fundamentally sound were the people of this country that Sir Edward did not believe any government would have reason to question the support it would receive for the adoption of forward and even drastic policies.

CAN BE SOLVED

The three outstanding problems facing the people, Sir Edward said, were the unbalanced budget, the enormous increase in the national debt and the existence of "cankers" on the body of economic in the shape of inescapable obligations. All of these, he said, were of domestic character, and all capable of cure.

LITTLE GAIN IN CANCER FIGHT

Lancet, British Medical Journal, Says Dr. H. C. Connell's Method Not Cure

Canadian Press
London, Nov. 28.—The Lancet, British medical journal, says the cancer treatment evolved by Dr. H. C. Connell of Kingston, Ont., on the basis of a preliminary note published in The Canadian Medical Association Journal, does not justify the optimistic reports telegraphed to Great Britain.

The doctor's remedy for this malignant growth is a solution containing enzymes (a chemical ferment produced by living cells) which is believed to be a specific for malignant parts.

After describing the preparation and injection, intravenously or into muscles, of this sterile fluid, The Lancet said in a recent issue: "Unfortunately, Dr. Connell presents no evidence that the solution contains substance specifically destructive to cancer cells in vitro."

"Though experiments in vivo, on mice with transplanted tumors are said to bear out his expectations, the director of the Imperial Cancer Research Fund reports that similar tests in this country have proved consistently negative."

The clinical evidence, it is added, was based on cases, all of them inoperable, and only the first two patients showed striking improvement.

In the other twenty-eight cases there was little evidence of more than an easing or controlling of pain with a gain in weight after the treatment.

While bathing at Herne Bay, England, Jack Squire lost his ring, and later found it and another ring lying beside it on the sand.

WHEAT BOARD PLANS APPROVED

Canadian Press
Calgary, Nov. 28.—Described as a goal reached by grain growers after a seventeen-year campaign, delegates to the thirteenth annual meeting of the Alberta Wheat Pool to-day formally approved formation of the Canadian Wheat Board and at the same time suggested operations be extended to take in the marketing of coarse grains as provided by the federal legislation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—(Canadian Press)—After two hours of debate, the Washington Newspaper Guild yesterday evening refused, 31 to 16, to admit Hugh S. Johnson to membership. The former NRA chief had applied for membership as a syndicate columnist.

THE SPORTS MIRROR

TRUE AMATEURS. That is the only expression that can be used to describe the members of the New Zealand rugby team now touring Britain and who will perform in Victoria early next year. The only reward the wearers of the black jerseys will get for their trip will be that of having played for their country. No fees, no bonuses and no wages disguised as expenses. Just the thrilling satisfaction of having turned out for New Zealand and getting a long trip. That will be their reward.

Their travel costs and, their hotel bills are, of course, being met. Their rugby kit is also provided. But the only other gift they are picking up is a weekly coupon, value about $5, to be cashed and spent in the hotel. The weekly coupon is for the men to spend on cigarettes and amusement. We are forced to think about the Australian cricketers who got about $3,000 a man for playing five months in England and the South Africans who collected $1,500 apiece, plus bonus, for a cricket season in the Old Country.

The Australians and South Africans figure that those who venture abroad to uphold the national prestige should not be on a pocket for it. Still, the All-blacks are going to be well liked for their all-play-no-pay policy.

Writing in his daily column in the Montreal Star, Bas O'Meara gives an interesting angle on the major hockey question. His article in part follows: "It may be that the game needs more vocal thunder. Remember when Art Ross used to come to town with Bruins. Remember how Leo Dandurand and the Maroons fought tooth and nail. His thunder words echoed round the city. Now Frank Patrick comes placidly into the picture, and there follows a great calm. This does not mean that Frank is not a great manager. He is one of the best, only he does not stir the multitude in the Russian manner. Naturally he has Ross all keyed up, and it may not seem necessary to pour hot shots in his pathway in other cities as he goes along. These names are used merely as pegs to prove the point.

"Brother Lester does things more along the traditional manner. Arguments are always good copy and when he pulls off his perorations, even the boys on the curb on the rue de la Montreuil seem to get the picture. Red Dutton seems to be one of the old school, and while he is a big hamstring because of the millions placed on players, he should be able to lose his temper consistently in the best old-time manner. Jack Adams, despite his usually jolly demeanor, can turn on the vocal heat, particularly after a defeat.

"Which brings the contention that what hockey could stand right now is a lot of Gormans, plenty of Smythes, come Dandurands and others of that ilk who do not blurt out their opinions 'off the record,' but let themselves go full tilt when the mood seizes them, which in fact, but not often enough to make up for the careful restraint of some of their fellows who it seems to this corner sometimes lose a little too gracefully. It is not meant by this that one should rant and rave in defeat, but there is no sense in absorbing getbacks with a well, what does it matter? air. Most people who have had to do with sport will tell you that the easy losers are too often infrequent winners."

Japan is the only nation outside of the United States more interested in baseball than Mexico. "They want a dozen American managers and also coaches to come down there and develop them," says Al Schacht, the comedian who accompanied the All-American League below the Rio Grande at the conclusion of the campaign.

"They really go for the game. Why, we had hundreds of women of sixty-five and more at our games every day. They've always got a band out there and they give the visitor a lot of applause when he makes a good fielding play or drives in a couple of runs. When he does that the band plays the hero number when he comes back to the bench and the people stand up and applaud.

LAKE HILL IN HOOP VICTORY

Defeat Hoyle-Brown 32 to 25 to Tie West Saanich For Senior B Leadership

Featured by the fine scoring of Noel Morgan and Wellings, who secured fourteen and ten points, respectively, Lake Hill cagers yesterday evening went into a first-place tie with West Saanich Mercantiles in the men's senior B race, when they defeated the Hoyle-Brown quintette 32 to 25 at the High School gym.

It was a fast game with the score at the breather being 17 to 14 in favor of Lake Hill. Island Tug Red Stacks secured a 41 to 29 victory over Hoyle-Brown in an intermediate A section game. The halftime score stood 21 to 18 in favor of Red Stacks. Taylor was the high scorer for the winners with twenty points.

Kreages women defeated Burnetts 21 to 17 after a keen struggle. Harding and Sharpe refereed. The teams scored as follows: Kreages—V. Hannan 10, B. Crosby 1, D. O'Connor 4, V. Hall 2, M. Wells 3, and J. Trotter 1; total 21. Burnetts—P. Leavitt, P. Whyte, D. Anderson 4, D. Beere 4, V. Sinclair 4, J. Phillips and J. Wilson 8; total 17.

Red Stacks—Coles 2, Taylor 20, Robb 11, Sharpe 2, Lansell 2, Jackson 4, and Naysmith; total 41. Hoyle-Brown—Crows, Ritchie 1, Hughes, Sparks, Hornsby 4, Price 8, Vout 2, Passmore 12, and Wilson 2; total 29.

Lake Hill—Michael 2, Wellings 10, Cunningham 2, Mackenzie, S. Bates, M. Atkinson, P. Atkinson 4, and Morgan 14; total 32. Hoyle-Brown—Noakes 3, Campbell 3, Tubman 2, Fleming 4, Robertson 3, Caddell 2, Walker 4, Elliott 4, and Levy; total 25.

The Victoria High School girls' basketball team defeated the Victoria College team 37 to 22 in League Game. The score was tied 9 to 9 at the end of the first quarter. The High School had the edge in the remaining three-quarters and steadily hung up a substantial margin. The score at half time was 17 to 11 in favor of the High School.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

—By John Hix

Holidays and times of festival and celebration are round throughout the world—all peoples and countries find something to observe in this manner. With one holiday taken from them, they turn to another. Shrewdly the Christian church substituted church holidays for pagan holidays in Europe during the rise of Christianity, and even now Easter, Christmas and other strictly Christian holidays can be shown to have their origin in celebrations that are older than Christianity itself.

Hocking Captures All Open Titles

Lifts Three Championships As Garrison Badminton Club Tournament Ends; Florence Oates Women's Titleholder; Several Close Matches Seen

Ross "Bud" Hocking, that poker-faced volleying expert of the local tennis lists, re-asserted his supremacy over fellow members of the Victoria Garrison Badminton Club in the championship finals at the Armories yesterday evening, as he waded through his opposition to score a grand slam in all open title events. Florence "Babe" Oates scored two open triumphs in the women's division and annexed a third laurel in the handicap lists.

CANADA WINS HOCKEY GAME

Defeats England 5 to 4 in Keen "Test" Match at London Arena

London, Nov. 28.—Canada defeated England 5 to 4 yesterday evening in a "test" hockey match at Streatham to lead in the five-game series 2 to 1. Teams representing the two countries staged a keen, close struggle. England led 4 to 3 at the end of the second period but the Canadians tallied twice in the final session. Stapleton notched two goals for Canada. Milford, Lane and Hodges scored the other three. For England, Chappell scored twice. Kilpatrick and Davey supplied the remaining two.

Seattle Hawks In Win Over Calgary

Score 4 to 1 Victory in Northwest Hockey League; in Tie With Calgary and Edmonton For Third Position; Seattle Players on Spot

Seattle, Nov. 28.—The Seattle Sea Hawks at last have started rolling in the Northwest Hockey League. They beat Calgary 4 to 1 here yesterday evening to score their second straight victory after losing the first four games of the season. The win put Seattle in a three-way tie with Edmonton and Calgary with four points each. Portland and Vancouver are tied for first place with eight each.

Before the contest, President Hugh Caldwell announced he had asked waivers on three of the Sea Hawk players, including Hemmerling, and the forward did not seem to do his best, bringing back from the crowd. No official announcement on the status of Hemmerling was immediately available. The other two players were Moon Mullen and Harold Tabor, but they were outstanding in the victory.

MEADAM NOT GOING It was first reported that Sammy McAdam, flashy centre, was included in the waiver group, but Caldwell said this was an error. Seattle rushed away with the battle in the first period, scoring three goals to one for Calgary. Proudlock, Houbregs and Sheppard tallied for the Sea Hawks and Adams garnered Calgary's lone counter after taking a nifty pass from Gainer. Tabor added the fourth Seattle goal for good measure in the last stanza.

Each team was awarded a free shot because of tripping, but Gilhooley missed for Seattle and Gainer failed for Calgary. Teams follow: Calgary—Timmins; McFarlane, Gilmore; Carl Sorenson; Smith, Anderson. Subs—McGregor, Adams, Gainer, Chris Sorenson.

Seattle—Venne; Houbregs, Gilhooley; Sheppard; Gagne, Proudlock. Subs—Mullen, Tabor, Hemmerling. Referee—Carl J. Cobb, Vancouver.

LOCAL BOXERS TO GO NORTH

Victoria Fighters and Wrestlers Appear on Ladysmith Card To-morrow

Local boxers and wrestlers will journey up-island to-morrow evening to meet Vancouver and island battlers in a seven bout mixed card at Ladysmith. Rex Carey, Canadian Scottish, provincial middleweight champion, is scheduled to headline the fight section in a bout against Brian Kennedy, Vancouver, over six two minute rounds.

WRESTLING In the wrestling section, Al Garnet, Victoria, is billed against Scotty Marks Vancouver, and Pete Tyson, local performer, is listed to meet Charlie Davies, Chemainus. Other boxing features include a five round bout between Lionel Williams lightweight champion of Alberta, now residing in Ladysmith, and Jack Nicholson, Vancouver, former British Columbia title holder in the same division. Pete Crawford, Ladysmith, former provincial bantam champion, will trade punches with Joey Brown, Vancouver.

Hudson's Bay Football Eleven Captures Hayward Cup

Defeat Kresges To Keep Trophy For Second Year

Stevens Scores Pair of Goals in 4 to 0 Decision at Heywood Avenue

SPENCERS TAKE NAVY INTO CAMP

Hudson's Bay footballers will hold the Hayward Cup for another twelve months as a result of their smashing 4 to 0 victory over Kresges yesterday afternoon at the Heywood Avenue grounds. It is the second straight season the Bays have won the trophy. In the only other Wednesday League fixture yesterday Spencers trounced the Navy 3 to 0 at the Athletic Park.

The third game between Sanich United and the James Bay Wanderers scheduled at Beacon Hill, upper ground, was postponed owing to the death of the father of Fred Bourne, one of the James Bay players.

Following yesterday's matches the Hudson's Bay top the league standings with sixteen points for nine matches. Spencers have ten points for eight matches, while the Navy and Wanderers are deadlocked in third place with eight points each.

BAYS TOO GOOD

In their match with Kresges the Bays held the upper hand all the way, although only able to gain a 1 to 0 lead in the first half. After holding the offensive from the opening whistle the Bays finally took the lead after fifteen minutes, when O'Neil found the corner of the net with a shot that McMillan, Kresges' goalie, touched, but could not hold. The Bays continued to hammer shot after shot at McMillan, but he closed his net for the remainder of the first half. Kresges broke away a few times, adopting a kick and rush style of play, but the Bays' back division was sound.

The Bays got down to serious business early in the second half, and it was not long before their goals had been marked up to their credit. The first one came when Stevens took a pass from O'Neil to boot the ball between the sticks. The same player made it 3 to 0 when he got his head to a cross from Stewart, right winger, and beat McMillan. Taking a rebound from Robinson shot Stewart completed the scoring for the afternoon.

In the late stages of the match Kresges made a gallant attempt to prevent a deadlock and two shots from Archie McBride and Hall gave Baxter, Bay's goalie, plenty of trouble to clear.

D. McMillan refereed. The teams follow: Hudson's Bay—Baxter, O'Connell, Wyatt, Williamson, McConnell, Oskman, Stewart, Robinson, O'Neil, Stevens and Holmes.

Kresges—McMillan, Jack, Cones, McKenna, M. McBride, Ferguson, White, A. McBride, Hall, McElhan and Cave.

Taking advantage of their scoring opportunities Spencers accounted for the Navy in a tame affair that saw good football, conspicuous by its absence. With a greasy field and slippery ball the players had much difficulty in keeping the leather under control and much mauling was the result.

The twenty minute mark saw the department store eleven go ahead. Clyde Nicol carried the ball into the Navy goal area from the left wing, went past Dovey and then beat Mundle, Navy goalie, with a smart shot.

Chicago Hawks Meet Rangers

An abbreviated National Hockey League card to-night provides the disillusioned Black Hawks from Chicago with a chance to get back home from a short road trip not totally downhearted. The Hawks started as the only unbeaten team in the circuit and promptly bumped into Montreal Maroons, who upset them, 4 to 1.

To-night they engage Rangers in New York. Montreal Canadians move into Detroit for the only other scheduled game of the night. No team is a favorite playing against the Red Wings in Detroit, but the French team has got past some high obstacles already this season.

It was a fine bit of individual play. The Navy forced matters for a while, but found Stewartson, goalie, and Cann and Munroe, backs, too tough to get past. Before half-time Spencers went two goals up. Art Chapman finding the net with a curving shot to the corner.

Second half play saw Spencers dominate the game even more, and for the greater part of the game the Navy were hemmed in their own half. The sailor's back division flashed some good football, but the forwards were woefully weak. Taking a pass from Nicol, Bobby Brown registered Spencers' third counter. Just before the finish the same player hit the bar with a hard drive.

P. Shrimpton refereed.

The teams follow: Spencers—Stewartson, Munroe, Cann, L. Bradley, Chapman, D. Bradley, Brown, Mall, Clarke, Collins and Nicol.

Navy—Mundle, Dovey, Whyte, Watt, Robinson, Hutton, Hibbert, Bannalack, Marr, De Costa and Walker.

Rocky Brooks In Draw at Portland

Portland, Nov. 28.—Abe Coleman, 213-pound New Yorker, took the odd fall from "Brother" Jonathan Henton, 225, Hurricane, Utah, in the main event of yesterday evening's wrestling card.

Ted Cox, 20, Lodi, Calif., and Reb Russell, 218, Chicago, mauled their way to a three-round draw.

Jack Wagner, 205, Atlanta, defeated Hans Schroeder, 210, Germany, with a body slam in the second round of a match which drew an enthusiastic hand.

"Rocky" Brooks, 213, Victoria, B.C., and Abe Johnson, 220, Duluth, went to a three-round draw in the preliminary.

Knute Rockne Is Rising to Fame

Miami, Fla., Nov. 27.—A fleet quarterback, Knute Rockne, was the shining star this afternoon as his team smashed its way to victory.

So may the headlines read three or four years hence, in the belief of Reed Williams, who coaches the youthful Miami Military Academy team on which Knute Jr. plays.

True son of his late, famed father, Williams says, is the seventeen-year-old youngster who bore the brunt of the ball carrying in his team's 28 to 0 victory over Hollywood High here last Saturday.

Three times Rockne, slipping off tackle or around end, "ghosted" more than sixty yards down the field to score.

THRILLING U.S. FOOTBALL SPECTACLE

The stunning last-minute touchdown by which Notre Dame staved off defeat to the Army, 6 to 6, in their annual football game at Yankee Stadium in New York, served as a fitting climax to an afternoon of thrilling spectacles. Eighty-two thousand persons watched the West Point-Cadet Corps parade on the gridiron just before the start of the game. Superimposed on that colorful scene is a critical instant during the great struggle. Joe O'Neil (left), Notre Dame end, has just received the ball and is off for a twenty-five-yard gain as his teammates block out Army tacklers.

BIKE WINNERS GIVEN AWARDS

Annual Banquet and Dance of Victoria Motorcycle Club Held

Bill Espley, local motorcycle speed king, carried away the lion's share of trophies at the annual banquet of the Victoria Motorcycle Club, held yesterday evening in the sons of England Hall, when the presentation of prizes won at the annual hill climb and Brentwood reliability contests were made.

He claimed first place in the club's closed hill climb event, and was awarded the Girard Cup, symbolic of the event; accepted joint ownership of the Brentwood Reliability Trial Cup with Reg Shanks; secured a special prize for losing the least points in the reliability trial, and took third place in the island championship event.

Bob Shanks was asked to carry a miniature trophy to Louis Kaelin, Seattle, who took honors in the island championship event. Kaelin received the P. W. Francis Cup, emblematic of the island championship at the dance in the evening following the hill climb. Ray Douglas, Duncan motorcycle star, took third place honors.

Reg Shanks and Frank Baylis, secured second and third place trophies respectively in the Girard Cup event. Jimmy Worwick took possession of the Victoria Motorcycle Club A.M.A. challenge shield for the ensuing year, when he won first place in the novice event. Reg, Shanks and Bill Espley receive a lamp each for tying in the Brentwood reliability.

The presentations were made by Hugh Francis, Chief of Police Allan Rankin, of Saanich and Constable George Chisholm of Victoria.

Brian Tobin, who recently returned from a 14,000-mile motorcycle journey through the United States and Europe, gave a humorous and interesting account of his thirteen-month trip.

He described how he had ridden south to Los Angeles, from there to New Orleans, thence to Florida, where he rode on the famous Daytona Beach course, and from there to New York. From New York he boarded a freighter, proceeded to Cardiff, Wales, and then on to London, where he remained for three weeks. He went to France, Switzerland, then down the Rhine River and back to Calais, then to London. He went from Swansea to Montreal by freighter, and on to Toronto, where he stayed the winter. In April he started for Victoria by way of Chicago, the Lincoln Highway, Salt Lake City, Seattle and Vancouver.

He explained that on arriving in Wales he joined the Royal Automobile Club, and through their co-operation had no difficulties in passing frontiers.

During the evening Ernie Fullerton and Jimmy Haggart rendered a number of selections on their accordions.

Bob Shanks paid high tribute to the American Motorcycle Association, with which the local club is affiliated, and proposed a toast for its efforts to protect and foster motorcycling throughout the United States and Canada, and urged the local club to back them to the limit. John Norington replied briefly.

A toast to "The Ladies" was proposed by C. Davies, and answered by Mrs. "Bob" Shanks. Jack Rawnsley made the address of welcome to the guests, which was replied to by William Dillabough.

Cecil Prampton, president, presided. The gathering of sixty or more members and friends enjoyed themselves to the limit during the dancing, which occupied the latter part of the evening. Len Acres' orchestra supplied the music.

MEETS BROOKS

BOB KRUSE, veteran Portland heavyweight wrestler, who will tackle Rocky Brooks, Victoria, in the eight ten-minute round main event of Saturday's card at the Tillicum gym. Kruse will be making his first appearance here in many months. In the five-round semi-wind-up, Baptiste Paul, local Indian heavyweight, has been matched with Babe Smallinski. A special bout will round out the programme. The first bout will be at 8.45 o'clock.

St. Louis Browns May Change Hands

St. Louis, Nov. 28.—George Sisler, once considered the best first baseman in baseball, yesterday evening confirmed reports he and a group of local business men and sportsmen planned to purchase St. Louis Browns. Sisler, for a decade a leading big league batter and for three years manager of the Browns, said the deal was in a "formative stage," but that there was "little doubt" it would go through.

California Loses Its Grid Captain

Los Angeles, Nov. 28.—Bob McChesney, captain and star left end of University of California at Los Angeles football team, yesterday was declared ineligible for further college competition because of deficiency in his studies.

His loss precedes the important U.C.L.A. game with the University of Idaho next Saturday—important because the Bruins hope to advance into a tie for first place in Pacific Coast standings with Stanford and University of California by defeating Idaho.

McChesney has been a regular end for three seasons. Members and friends enjoyed themselves to the limit during the dancing, which occupied the latter part of the evening. Len Acres' orchestra supplied the music.

Knockout Label On Louis's Car

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 28.—Joe Louis' automobile will bear his knockout label next year. Secretary of State Orville E. Atwood announced to-day that twenty-five special Michigan plates will be issued bearing a letter and a zero. Louis was given the plate "K-O".

MAT FANS IN ROWDY SHOW

Attack Referee and Detective After Dusek-O'Mahoney Bout at Cleveland

Cleveland, Nov. 28.—The Dusek wrestling clan and its supporters to-day are loudly clamoring for a quick return match between the "Raslin" Slugger" Ernie Dusek and Danno O'Mahoney, the Irishman, generally admitted to be the champion of the grapplers.

In a fust here yesterday evening that resembled more a battle royal than a wrestling match Dusek lost to Danno when he was disqualified for fouling.

Dusek floored O'Mahoney with a kick and then knocked Referee Bull Weideman to the deck a moment later. After the confusion Weideman ruled Dusek had fouled out.

Dusek adherents followed the referee to his dressing-room where one of them took a sock at Weideman. Detective Phila Bova also was pestered. Police chased the fans from the room. Dusek scaled 290 and Danno 200 pounds.

Fred Perry Must Continue to Rest

Sydney, Australia, Nov. 28.—Fred Perry, British amateur tennis champion, has been ordered by his doctors to cancel tennis engagements during treatment for a muscular injury from which he is suffering. He will probably not play until next spring.

Original Marathon Winner Will Race

Spyros Louis, Victor in Marathon to Athens Event in 1896, Will Form One of Relay Team For Olympic Games Feature From Mount Olympus to Berlin; Is Sixty-five Years Old

London, Nov. 28.—Spyros Louis, winner of the original Marathon to Athens race in the first Olympic Games held in 1896, is to emerge from his retirement to take part in the relay race from Mount Olympus to Berlin, where the 1936 games will be staged.

"I shall run one kilometre in the race somewhere in Greece, and it is quite possible that I shall go to Germany by air with an olive branch cut from Mount Olympus," he stated recently.

Louis is now sixty-five years old and is spending the closing years of an active life as inspector to the community of the village of Amaraoussia near Athens.

Sitting in the inevitable coffee house on the main square in the village, he described how he came to run in the 1896 Olympiad.

"It all commenced as a joke," he said. "I was serving with the colors, as I belong to the 1893-1895 class, and was appointed orderly to General Mavromichalis. We were riding on horseback and passing the stadium, which in those days was only a small wooden structure, with benches all round."

"My officer, pointing to the stadium said that next year there would be great doings, and that a race would be run from Marathon to Athens, a distance of forty-two kilometres, and that I ought to run."

"I replied that not only would I run but would win the race. After obtaining my discharge from the colors, I went back to my village working in the fields. We fellows in Amaraoussia are renowned as athletes."

FIFTH IN TRIAL
"On Good Friday, 1896, in company with others, I went to Marathon for a trial run, I had made no attempt at diet nor undergone any training, trusting to my own vitality. We set off from Marathon, and after running for some considerable time, I got cramp but managed to carry on and finish with the trial, arriving fifth and was thus eligible for the actual Marathon race. That night my legs and muscles were very stiff and I was rubbed well with spirit."

"On Easter Sunday, I set off for Marathon, in company with all the other competitors, about seventy, in a very old spring cart. The road in those days was only a goat track with stones and ditches all along. We eventually arrived in Marathon, where we were most hospitably entertained by the mayor. After a good feed with plenty of "retziato" (the juice of white or black grapes to which is added resin from the pine tree giving it a very acrid flavor suggestive of turpentine) I went to bed. Next morning we were all examined by the doctor, and I was passed fit for the race to be run on Thursday of Easter week."

"The day of the race was bitterly cold. I was the last to leave and soon managed to pass the greater part of my friends, until there were only five ahead. I managed to reduce this distance to three, a Greek called Vassilakos, a Frenchman and someone else whom I do not remember. I overtook Vassilakos, who fell going up hill, the Frenchman also fell shortly after, so that I was second. I overtook the other man just outside Athens."

"As I was the last to leave, I did not know what to do but was told to go right in. I was met by the prince, who wanted to embrace me, but I insisted on running round the stadium once."

"Eventually I was examined by an Italian doctor, to whom I made the sign by drawing my hand across my stomach, that I was hungry, but he would not allow me to eat. From the Crown Prince Constantine I received a very nice gold watch in addition to the official prize."

"Asked about refreshments on the way, Louis replied "I drank retziato and beaten-up eggs." Louis laughingly recalled the shoes that he ran in, a very old pair of slippers. By the time he arrived at Athens there was nothing left of them."

—and the horse-cars

"Way back in the glamorous eighties, with its door-flipping hansom cabs, the only means of mass-transportation within the city was the ambulatory horse-drawn street car."

In the succeeding half-century, the form of public conveyance has experienced many evolutionary stages, culminating to-day in the modern motor-coach. Quiet, smooth-running, the motor-bus of to-day affords comfortable and convenient transportation to and from the business district. Traffic congestion in the shopping centre is relieved by its swift operation and by the convenience and safety of curb-loading.

The "Coach Lines" maintains a frequent bus service to urban and suburban Saanich. Information as to rates and schedules may be obtained at the Broughton Street Depot.

In computing the number of words in an advertisement estimate groups of three or less figures as one word. Dollar marks and all abbreviations count as one word.

In estimating the number of lines in an advertisement count five words for the first two lines and seven words for each line thereafter. This is not an absolute rule but a guide to the advertiser, much depending on the length of the individual words.

The Times will not be responsible for more than one insertion of an advertisement ordered for more than one issue. Any claim for rebate on account of errors or omissions must be made within thirty days from the date of the same, otherwise the claim will not be allowed.

Advertisers who desire it may have their notices addressed to a box at The Times Office and forwarded to their private address. A charge of 10c is made for this service.

Subscribers wishing their address changed should notify the office as well as the carrier. If your Times is missing, phone E4175 before 9 p.m. and a copy will be sent by special messenger.

Italian Ship Rescues Crew

New York, Nov. 28.—The master and five of the crew of the British two-masted schooner R. L. Borden were rescued by the Italian freighter San Pedro about 610 miles east-southeast of New York late yesterday evening. It was reported in a message from the San Pedro to-day.

The message was picked up by Mac-Kay Radio.

The R. L. Borden sailed from New York November 19 for Grand Bank, N.S., and is believed to have been driven off its course by a storm.

At the time of the rescue, the schooner was near the place from which the St. Exellona wrecked last evening, it was reported in a message from the San Pedro to-day.

The message from the San Pedro said:

"3 p.m.—Position, latitude 39.22 degrees north, longitude 62.15 degrees west; rescued crew six persons of two-masted schooner R. L. Borden of St. John's, Nfld. Signed: Master San Pedro."
